DICKERT

HEAD COACH / SECOND YEAR

Washington State University Director of Athletics Pat Chun announced Nov. 27, 2021 that Jake Dickert had been named the Cougars' Head Football Coach. Dickert agreed in principle to a five-year contract in becoming the 34th head football coach in program history.

Dickert began the 2022 season, his first full year leading WSU, with three-straight wins, including a victory at No. 19 Wisconsin. The win was WSU's first in three meetings against the Badgers and WSU's first regular-season nonconference road win over a ranked team since 2003. The Cougars captured three of its final four games and reached a bowl game, the Jimmy Kimmel L.A. Bowl, for the seventh-straight season, the second-longest current streak in the Pac-12. Under Dickert's leadership, WSU again was strong defensively, finishing in the top four of numerous Pac-12 categories, including second in Red Zone defense and tackles-for-loss, third in scoring defense and turnovers gained, and fourth in sacks. WSU also led the Pac-12 in Red Zone offense. In 2022, WSU had 10 All-Pac-12 players, including first-team linebacker and third-team All-American Daiyan Henley, while safety Jaden Hicks garnered third-Team Freshman All-America honors. Henley was selected in the third round of the NFL Draft by his hometown Los Angeles Chargers.

Dickert spent the final five games of the 2021 regular season serving as the Cougar's acting head coach, leading WSU to a 3-2 record with wins over Arizona State, Arizona and a dominating 40-13 Apple Cup victory in Seattle before WSU earned a trip to the Tony The Tiger Sun Bowl. The Apple Cup win snapped a seven-game skid to Washington and was WSU's largest margin of victory in series history.

Under Dickert's leadership, the Cougar defense was a huge spark in 2021, leading the Pac-12 with 29 takeaways, fifth-most nationally, while also leading the Pac-12 and tied for ninth nationally in turnover margin. Last season, 14 players earned All-Pac-12 honors including first-team selections in right tackle Abraham Lucas, kicker Dean Janikowski and EDGE Ron Stone Jr. while punter Nick Haberer was named a Freshman All-American. In the 2022 NFL Draft, offensive lineman Abraham Lucas was selected in the second round by the Seattle Seahawks and cornerback Jaylen Watson went in the seventh round to the Kansas City Chiefs.

Entering the 2021 season, Dickert was in his second year as WSU's defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. In his first season in Pullman, the Washington State defense produced four All-Pac-12 Conference selections including linebacker Jahad Woods, who was second on the team with 31 tackles and led the team with 4.5 tackles-for loss. The Cougars led the league with eight forced fumbles and was fourth in rush defense (154.8), a 30-yard improvement from the previous season.

Dickert arrived at WSU after working three seasons at the University of Wyoming (2017-19) including the 2019 campaign as the defensive coordinator while working with the linebackers and safeties.

In 2019, the Cowboys were sixth in the country in red zone defense, No. 11 in the country in rush defense (107.1) and scoring defense (17.8), No. 40 tackles-for-loss (83) and No. 43 in total defense. Dickert saw four Cowboys earned All-Mountain West Conference honors led by second-team All-American linebacker and Butkus Award Finalist Logan Wilson while redshirt-freshman defensive end Solomon Byrd was named a Freshman All-American by the Football Writers Association of America.

Dickert originally joined the Wyoming football staff in February, 2017 and coached the safeties for the 2017 and 2018 seasons before he was promoted to defensive coordinator in 2019 where he started the season coaching the linebackers and later coached the safeties. In his three seasons at Wyoming, Dickert coached a pair of future NFL safeties including three-time first-team All-Mountain West Conference pick Andrew Wingard and saw four players earn All-MWC honors in 2019 while another earned 2019 Freshman All-America accolades on the defensive line.

In 2018, Wyoming's defense was among the best in the nation, finishing the season No. 19 in total defense (326.2), No. 25 in rushing defense (129.5), No. 28 in scoring defense (22.0) and No. 32 in pass defense (196.7). Dickert coached senior safeties Andrew Wingard and Marcus Epps as Wingard ended his career tied for the Mountain West Conference career tackle record with 454. Wingard earned First Team All-Mountain West honors for the third consecutive season after being named to the preseason watch lists for the Chuck Bednarik, Bronko Nagurski and Jim Thorpe Awards in both 2017 and 2018. Epps concluded his career as the only three-time team captain in the modern era of Cowboy

Football, recorded 325 career tackles and was a finalist for the 2018 Burlsworth Trophy, which is awarded to the nation's most outstanding player who began his career as a walk-on. Epps was selected in the sixth round of the 2019 NFL Draft by the Minnesota Vikings where he played in seven games before playing in eight more with the Philadelphia Eagles. Wingard played in the 2019 East-West Shrine Game, was invited to the 2019 NFL Draft Combine and signed a free-agent contract with the Jacksonville Jaguars where he played all 16 games and made two starts as a rookie.

In his first season at Wyoming, Dickert help the 2017 Cowboy defense become one of the best groups in the country as they led the country in takeaways (38), ranked ninth in scoring defense (17.5), were first in fumbles recovered (18), second in interceptions (20), eighth in defensive touchdowns scored (4 TD), No. 13 in pass defense (174.9) and No. 23 in total defense (335.2). Dickert coached first-team All-Mountain West strong safety Wingard while the safety tandem of Wingard and Epps led the Pokes in interceptions in 2017, with five and four interceptions, respectively.

Before arriving at Wyoming, Dickert spent the 2016 season as the safeties coach and co-special teams coordinator at South Dakota State. Earlier in his career, Dickert was a part of Bohl's coaching staff at North Dakota State from 2008-10.

In his one season on the South Dakota State coaching staff, Dickert helped guide the Jackrabbits to the 2016 Missouri Valley Football Conference Championship and a No. 8 seed in the 2016 NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) Playoffs, where they advanced to the FCS National Quarterfinals.

As defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Minnesota State, Mankato for the 2014 and 2015 seasons Dickert was part of a coaching staff that led the Mavericks to back-to-back Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference (NSIC) championships and consecutive NCAA Division II Playoff berths, earning their way to the 2014 National Championship Game. Minnesota State posted a combined record of 24-3 over that two-year span. Dickert's 2014 defense ranked second in the nation in scoring defense (12.9), fourth in turnovers gained, No. 12 in pass defense efficiency and No. 15 in total defense. In 2015, the Mavericks ranked fifth in the nation in scoring defense (16.1), third in rushing defense, seventh in pass defense efficiency and sixth in total defense. He coached 16 All-Conference players, three First Team All-Americans and a two-time Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference Defensive Player of the Year.

In his first season as a college defensive coordinator in 2013 at Augustana, Dickert's defense ranked No. 20 in the nation at the NCAA Division II level in scoring defense, giving up only 19.5 ppg. Augustana ranked second in the NSIC in pass defense, third in rushing defense and third in total defense. He coached five All-Conference players at Augustana.

In 2012, he served as the defensive backs coach at Southeast Missouri State. The Redhawks ranked No. 18 in the nation in turnovers gained (25) and No. 23 in interceptions (13). Southeast Missouri State ranked No. 2 in the Ohio Valley Conference in pass defense. Dickert also coached a First Team All-Conference strong safety at Southeast Missouri.

Dickert spent the 2011 season as the special teams coordinator and defensive backs coach at South Dakota, where the Coyotes ranked second in the Great West Conference in fewest passing yards allowed and interceptions. He coached three all-conference performers while at South Dakota and his special teams units ranked in the Top 10 in the nation in punting average and net punting and had an individual rank in the Top 10 in punt return yards.

He joined the North Dakota State coaching staff in 2008 as a defensive graduate assistant on Bohl's staff. In 2009 and 2010, he was elevated to serve as safeties coach for the Bison. The 2010 NDSU team advanced to the FCS National Quarterfinals. Dickert began his college coaching career in 2007 as a defensive graduate assistant at his alma mater, Wisconsin-Stevens Point.

He played football at Wisconsin-Stevens Point from 2002-06 where he earned All-Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WIAC) honors as a wide receiver his senior season of 2006 and was named his team's Wide Receiver of the Year both his junior and senior seasons. Dickert earned his bachelor's degree in secondary math education from Wisconsin-Stevens Point in 2007, and completed his master's degree in general education, also from UW-Stevens Point in 2009.

He and his wife, Candice, have three children, daughter Rylee and sons Jett and Jace.

BEN ARBUCKLE

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR / QUARTERBACKS
FIRST YEAR

Ben Arbuckle begins his first season on Head Coach Jake Dickert's staff, serving as the Cougars' offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach, it was announced January 6, 2023.

Arbuckle arrives in Pullman having spent the past two seasons at Western Kentucky, serving as the co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach during the 2022 season. In his first season in that role, Arbuckle took the Hilltoppers to great heights as the team finished sixth in total offense (497.3 ypg) and 15th in scoring (36.4 ppg), while quarterback Austin Reed led the nation in passing yards (4,746) and was third in passing touchdowns (40). The season culminated with a win over South Alabama 44-23 in the New Orleans Bowl to cap a 9-5 season. In that game, WKU put up 677 yards of total offense, including a New Orleans Bowl record 522 passing yards.

For the season, Arbuckle guided a Hilltoppers offense that accounted for 497.3 ypg of total offense, which ranks sixth in the nation, while their 352.2 ypg in passing offense and 36.4 ppg rank second and 15th, respectively, nationally. Under Arbuckle's mentorship, graduate student quarterback Austin Reed finished second nationally in passing at 339.0 ypg and fourth in total offense at 355.0 ypg. Prior to the 2022 season, 247Sports included Arbuckle in its list of 30-Under-30 coaches who are rising stars in college football.

Prior to the 2022 season, Arbuckle spent the 2021 campaign at Western Kentucky in an offensive quality control role, assisting an offense that led the nation in passing (433.7 ypg), finished second in total offense (353.3 ypg) and second in scoring at 44.2 ppg. Arbuckle helped mentor Bailey Zappe who broke NCAA FBS records for both passing yards and passing touchdowns in a single season with 5,967 and 62, respectively.

Arbuckle arrived at WKU having spent the 2020 season as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Seminole High School in Seminole, Texas. He began his coaching career in a quality control role at Houston Baptist for two years from 2018 to 2019, working mainly with the offensive line for one season and then the quarterbacks for another.

Arbuckle played quarterback at West Texas A&M University and graduated in 2018 with a dual degree in Finance and Economics. Originally from Canadian, Texas, he went to Canadian High School.

Arbuckle and his wife, Lauren, have a young daughter, Hudson.

JEFF
DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR / LINEBACKERS
FIRST YEAR

Spokane native Jeff Schmedding begins his first season on Head Coach Jake Dickert's staff after being named the Cougars' defensive coordinator/linebackers coach January 12, 2023.

Schmedding returns to the Pacific Northwest having spent the past two seasons at Auburn, most recently serving as defensive coordinator. In 2022, Schmedding oversaw the development of All-SEC First Team edge rusher Derick Hall, who totaled 60 tackles, 12 TFL's and seven sacks, while also being awarded the national Freddie Solomon Community Spirit Award from the Premier Players Foundation of Tampa.

In his first season at Auburn (2021), Schmedding served as the Tigers' assistant head coach, linebackers coach and defensive run game coordinator. That season saw Auburn rank 29th in rushing defense and 17th in tackles-for-loss.

Schmedding spent the previous two seasons at Boise State as the defensive coordinator for the Broncos. After coaching Boise State's outside linebackers in 2019, he took over inside linebackers for the 2020 campaign. Schmedding's first season leading the defense was a strong one as the Broncos claimed the Mountain West championship with a 12-2 record and 8-0 mark in conference play. The Boise defense put together an impressive year, finishing in the top 15 nationally in team sacks (37) and in the top 25 nationally in scoring defense (20.6 ppg).

In 2019, Junior STUD end Curtis Weaver was named the 2019 Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year while leading the conference and finishing fifth nationally in sacks (13.5). His 34-career sacks are a Mountain West record as well. Weaver was selected in the fifth round of the NFL Draft by the Miami Dolphins. Junior defensive back Kekaula Kaniho was also named to the All-Mountain West First Team. Additionally, the Broncos had five other defensive players named to the 2019 Mountain West Second Team.

Prior to arriving in Boise, Schmedding spent 15 seasons (2004-18) at Eastern Washington helping to lead the Eagles to the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) National Championship in 2010. EWU also made the national title game in 2018 – one of 10 total FCS Playoff appearances during Schmedding's time with the program. In 2018, the Eagles' defense was first in the FCS in defensive touchdowns scored and second in forced turnovers.

Schmedding served as EWU's defensive coordinator from 2015-18, while also coaching safeties and rovers. He spent seven seasons (2008-14) as the Eagles' special teams coordinator, coaching linebackers (2008-09), safeties and nickels (2010-14) during that time. He began his career at EWU as a graduate assistant (2004-06) where he spent time with linebackers and the secondary before being promoted to a full-time role as safeties coach in 2007.

Schmedding's previous coordination of special teams was particularly impressive as well, especially in 2014. The Eagles ranked third in the FCS with four blocked punts, and was 10th in net punting (38.4), 15th in kickoff return average (22.8) and 28th in punt returns (11.8). That season, EWU scored touchdowns on a kickoff return, punt return and kickoff team.

As a position coach, Schmedding tutored several of the finest safeties in EWU history. Tevin McDonald earned All-America and first-team All-Big Sky Conference accolades in 2014 for the Eagles before signing a free agent NFL contract with the Oakland Raiders. In 2013, McDonald earned third-team All-Big Sky honors as well. Schmedding's safeties in 2012 featured Academic All-American Jeff Minnerly, Freshman All-American Jordan Tonani and second-team All-Big Sky selection Allen Brown.

In 2010 and 2011, Schmedding coached All-America safety Matt Johnson, who earned first-team All-Big Sky Conference honors both seasons before being selected in the fourth round of the NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys. Minnerly was honorable mention All-Big Sky both seasons. Schmedding also coached cornerbacks in 2011, a group which included eventual three-time first-team All-Big Sky selection T.J. Lee III. In 2010, EWU led the FCS with 26 interceptions.

EDUCATION

BA, Physical Education EASTERN WASHINGTON, '02

Schmedding coached linebackers in 2008 and 2009, including J.C. Scherritt, who in 2009 was named to all six All-America teams and was second in the voting for the Buck Buchanan Award given to the top defensive player in the FCS. He set school and Big Sky records with 170 total tackles. He went on to win the award in 2010 and was a captain and Grey Cup champion for the Edmonton Eskimos.

Schmedding earned his bachelor's degree in physical education and coaching from Eastern Washington in 2002. A native of Spokane, Wash., he graduated from University High School where he was a standout wrestler and football player – he was the runner-up at the State 3A Wrestling Championships in the 215-pound division. Schmedding and his wife, Kristine, have two sons, Jack and Blake.

PETE KALIGIS

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH / DEFENSIVE TACKLES
SECOND YEAR

Pete Kaligis begins his second season on Head Coach Jake Dickert's staff after being named the assistant head coach/defensive tackles coach on Jan. 3, 2022. Kaligis and Dickert previous worked together from 2017-19 while both were on Craig Bohl's defensive staff at Wyoming.

In his first season coaching the defensive tackles, the unit combined for 101 tackles, 11.5 tackles-for-loss and four sacks. It was part of a defense that finished second in the Pac-12 in TFL's and fourth in sacks, while the defense also flexed in the Red Zone, finishing second in the Pac-12 and 15th nationally.

Kaligis arrived in Pullman having spent the previous 13 seasons at Wyoming. During his time in Laramie, Kaligis served multiple roles, beginning with offensive line coach (2009), adding running backs and assistant head coach duties in 2012, offensive coordinator/running backs/assistant head coach in 2013, then transitioned to the other side of the ball in 2014, spending six years working with defensive tackles, then added defensive run game coordinator duties for his final two seasons.

Kaligis coached six bowl teams during his tenure and was a part of some of the best defenses in the country. In 2017, he coached First-Team All-Mountain West defensive tackle Youhanna Ghaifan, while also mentoring notable players Sidney Malauulu and Patrick Mertens, both of whom signed NFL free agent contracts.

In 2019, the Cowboy defense was again among the best in the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS), ranking: No. 11 in the nation in scoring defense, allowing opponents only 17.8 points per game, and No. 11 rushing defense, giving up only 107.1 rushing yards per game to opponents. Wyoming also ranked: No. 6 in the FBS in redzone defense (allowing opponents to convert only 68.9 percent of their opportunities), No. 12 in the country in defensive touchdowns scored (3), No. 31 in interceptions (12), No. 37 in defensive pass efficiency (123.23).

Wyoming's 2018 defense was one of the best in the nation. The Cowboys ranked No. 19 in the nation in total defense (allowing opponents only 326.2 yards per game), were No. 25 in the NCAA in rushing defense (129.5 yards per game), ranked No. 28 in scoring defense (giving up only 22.0 points per game) and were No. 32 in pass defense (196.7 yards per game). The UW defense also ranked No. 16 in the country in fewest first downs allowed to opponents (223). One of the Cowboy seniors coached by Kaligis in 2018 was nose tackle Sidney Malauulu, who attended rookie camp with the San Francisco 49ers following the 2019 NFL Draft.

In 2017, the Cowboy defense enjoyed an exceptional season. Wyoming's defense ranked No. 1 in the nation in takeaways in 2017, forcing 38 opponent turnovers. The Pokes ranked No. 9 in the country in scoring defense, allowing opponents only 17.5 points per game. UW ranked No. 1 in the NCAA in fumbles recovered (18), No. 2 in the nation in interceptions (20), No. 8 in defensive touchdowns scored (4 TDs), No. 13 in pass defense (174.9 passing yards allowed), and No. 23 in total defense (335.2 total yards allowed). Kaligis coached First Team All-Mountain West defensive tackle Youhanna Ghaifan in 2017.

As a unit, the 2016 Cowboy defense scored five defensive touchdowns to rank No. 1 in the Mountain West and No. 3 in the nation. Wyoming recovered 12 opponent fumbles, ranking No. 1 in the MW and No. 15 in the NCAA. The Cowboys' 15 interceptions were second best in the conference and 22nd nationally. UW's 27 total forced turnovers ranked No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 10 in the country.

In his first season coaching the Cowboys' interior defensive line in 2014, he coached senior defensive tackle Patrick Mertens. Mertens signed as a free agent with the Baltimore Ravens of the NFL following his senior year.

Kaligis served as Wyoming's assistant head coach, co-offensive coordinator and running backs coach in 2013. Sophomore running back Shaun Wick narrowly missed the 1,000-yard plateau in 2013, rushing for 979 yards. Wick ended his Wyoming career in 2016 with 2,533 career rushing yards to rank No. 6 on the Wyoming career list.

In 2013, Wyoming ranked 22nd in the nation in total offense (472.8 yards per game) and 26th in passing offense (282.4 yards per game). The Wyoming offense ranked second in the Mountain West Conference and 38th in the nation in passing offense in 2012, averaging 265.4 yards per game.

The 2012 season saw Kaligis coach First Team All-Mountain West center Nick Carlson. Carlson was named to the Rimington Trophy Watch List for the second time his senior season. The Rimington Trophy honors the nation's top center each season. Carlson was also named to the 2012 Rotary Lombardi Award Watch List, and was one of only 10 national finalists for the ARA Sportsmanship Award as a senior. Carlson (Tampa Bay Buccaneers) and senior offensive tackles Josh Leonard (Oakland Raiders) and Kyle Magnuson (Oakland Raiders) each were invited to NFL camps as free agents following their senior seasons.

In 2011, the Cowboy offense ranked No. 11 in the nation in fewest sacks allowed, allowing only 12 sacks in 13 games. Three UW offensive linemen earned Mountain West All-Conference honors in 2011. Senior tackle Clayton Kirven and junior center Nick Carlson were named Second Team All-Mountain West. Sophomore offensive guard Tyler Strong earned Honorable Mention All-Conference recognition. Carlson was named to the Rimington Trophy Watch List for the first time in 2011.

Kaligis coached sophomore center Carlson in 2010. Carlson went on to earn Honorable Mention All-Mountain West Conference honors. One of Kaligis' 2009 Cowboys, offensive tackle Ryan Otterson, signed a free-agent contract with the San Diego Chargers following the 2010 NFL Draft.

Kaligis has been a part of 16 teams that advanced to postseason play, including nine bowl appearances with NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision teams. Six of those bowl appearances came at Wyoming, including the Cowboys' victories in the 2021 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, the 2019 NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl, the 2017 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, appearance in the 2016 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl, bid to the 2011 Gildan New Mexico Bowl and win in the 2009 New Mexico Bowl. Kaligis was a strength and conditioning coach at Washington when the Huskies played in the 1999 Holiday Bowl, won the 2000 Rose Bowl (defeating Purdue, 34-24) and played in the 2002 Sun Bowl.

An outstanding college football player and track and field athlete, Kaligis started all 12 games at offensive guard for the Washington Huskies and late head football coach Don James when they captured the 1991 National Championship. The Huskies posted a perfect 12-0 record and defeated Michigan, 34-14, in the Rose Bowl on Jan. 1, 1992, to win the national title. Kaligis was a member of the Husky Football team from 1990-94.

He was an All-American in track and field in the shot put. He won the gold medal at the 1995 U.S. Olympic Festival, and placed third in the 1995 University Games. He participated in the 1996 Olympic Trials in track and field in the shot put.

Kaligis earned his B.A. degree in sociology and law enforcement at Washington in 1994. He and his wife, Kristine, have a daughter, Harlie Grace, and a son, Cooper.

MARK ATUAIA

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH / RUNNING BACKS
SECOND YEAR

Mark Atuaia begins his second season on Head Coach Jake Dickert's staff after being named running backs coach on Jan. 3, 2022. Following the 2022 season, he added the title of Associate Head Coach.

In 2022, Atuaia mentored junior Nakia Watson to All-Pac-12 Conference Honorable Mention honors after posting 769 yards rushing with nine touchdowns. Watson added four receiving touchdowns with his 13 total scores ranking fourth in the Pac-12 and tied for seventh in WSU single-season history. Atuaia also guided freshman Jaylen Jenkins to Pac-12 Freshman of the Week honors as he set season-highs with 13 carries for 130 yards including four carries for 10+yards and had 45-yard catch at No. 6 USC.

Atuaia (Ah-too-why-ah) spent the previous six seasons at the University of Virginia under head coach Bronco Mendenhall as the running backs coach.

With over three decades of experience in college football, Atuaia has guided multiple running backs to the NFL while leading his teams to success. In 2021, Atuaia helped Virginia amassing over 5,000 yards of total offense for the third time in the past four seasons.

Atuaia has been credited in playing a major role in the success of Virginia's running backs throughout his tenure. He was instrumental in the development of running back Wayne Taulapapa, who surpassed the 1,000-yard mark in his career during his 2021 campaign. In 2019, Taulapapa rushed for 12 touchdowns, the most by a Cavalier running back since Keith Payne's 14 in 2010. Taulapapa had four games with multiple rushing touchdowns, highlighted by three in the win over Florida State, including the game-winning score.

Atuaia guided Jordan Ellis to a stellar senior season in 2018, rushing for 1,026 yards and 10 touchdowns, becoming just the third 1,000-yard rusher at UVA since 2004. Ellis was UVA's first 1,000-yard rusher since 2013 and 15th overall. Ellis went on to appear in the East-West Shrine All-Star Game and sign a free agent contract with the Cincinnati Bengals.

Atuaia helped All-ACC running back Taquan Mizzell take a big step as a senior in 2016 as the tailback became the first player in ACC history with at least 1,500 career rushing and 1,500 career receiving yards. Under Atuaia's watchful eye, Mizzell developed into one of the nation's most durable backs, and was one of four players in the nation in 2016 to led his team in rushing (940) and receptions (52).

Community service was a hallmark of Atuaia's coaching experience at UVA. The team's Thursday's Heroes program has been recognized for its efforts to honor individuals across the state of Virginia who are dealing with personal adversity. In 2020, the ACC honored the Thursday's Heroes program with its "Game Changers" award, which recognizes and highlights specific conference teams' involvement with their local communities. Atuaia's position players were frequent visitors to the University's Children's Medical Center and local elementary schools as part of UVA's ACE (Athletes Committed to Education) program.

Atuaia has been with Mendenhall since 2013 when he joined the BYU staff as the running backs coach. In 2013 BYU's run game ranked No. 10 in the nation averaging 267.3 yards per game, setting a school record with 3,475 rushing yards. He tutored Jamaal Williams as the Cougar rushed for 1,233 yards and seven touchdowns in 2013 as a sophomore. Atuaia assisted in BYU's offense ranking No. 14 in scoring offensive in 2014 as BYU put up 37.1 points per game, the most points by a BYU team since 2001. In 2015 the BYU offense ranked No. 4 in the nation in red zone offense, scoring at a 94.3 percent clip.

Atuaia mentored Paul Lasike, a former BYU rugby All-American from Auckland, New Zealand. Under Atuaia's tutelage, the big running back played football for the first time ever in his life and after three seasons at BYU Lasike signed with the Chicago Bears in 2015.

Atuaia has a history of working with big, strong and powerful running backs. As a student assistant at BYU from 2005-11, Atuaia was instrumental in the development of former NFL running backs Fahu Tah, Fui Vakapuna, Harvey Unga and Manase Tonga during their time at BYU.

A former running back at BYU during the 1991 and 1994-96 seasons, Atuaia first joined the BYU athletic department in June 2012 as the assistant to the athletics director for student services. He previously worked as the assistant to the dean of Student Life at BYU. He accepted that position after graduating in 2011 with both a doctor of jurisprudence from BYU's J. Reuben Clark Law School and a master of public administration from the George W. Romney Institute of Public Management at BYU's Marriott School of Management.

During Atuaia's four-year playing career, BYU achieved a 39-11-2 record, won three conference titles and was ranked in the final top-25 national rankings three times. In addition, the offense was ranked in the top 10 nationally during three of his four seasons.

As a senior in 1996 he started 13 games on BYU's 14-1 Cotton Bowl team that finished the year ranked No. 5 in the country after defeating Kansas State 19-15 on New Year's Day 1997. Atuaia also helped BYU defeat Oklahoma 31-6 in the 1994 Cooper Bowl to finish ranked No. 10 by CNN and No. 18 by The Associated Press with a 10-3 record.

Atuaia totaled 1,247 yards on 301 carries (4.1 yards per attempt) with 11 touchdowns during his college career, while adding 68 catches for 668 yards (9.8 yards per catch) and four scoring receptions. His career-long rush was 51 yards while his long reception went for 61 yards. Atuaia also added 113 return yards as a member of the kick return team his freshman and sophomore seasons.

A native of Laie, Hawaii, Atuaia prepped at Kahuku High School before attending BYU. He served as a missionary for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Tucson, Ariz., from 1992-93. He received his bachelor's degree from BYU-Hawaii in 2003.

Atuaia and his wife Elizabeth, an accomplished recording artist and lead singer for the 1980s pop group The Jets, are the parents of seven children. His brothers Alema (1993, 1995-96) and Donny (1995-1999) also played football at BYU.

NICK
WHITWORTH
TIGHT ENDS / SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR
SECOND YEAR

Nick Whitworth begins his second season as a member of Head Coach Jake Dickert's coaching staff, being named tight ends coach/special teams coordinator on Jan. 14, 2022.

Whitworth joined the Cougar program having spent the previous three seasons as the special teams coordinator/running backs coach at Texas State in San Marcos, Texas.

Whitworth's first season in Pullman saw the Cougar special teams finish second in the Pac-12 in net punting at 41.4 ypp and punt return defense (3.9 ypr), both which placed 20th nationally. WSU was third (21.6 ypr) in kickoff returns and fifth in punt returns (9.1 ypr) in the Pac-12, respectively. Whitworth mentored punter Nick Haberer and punt returner Robert Ferrel to All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention honors.

During his time at Texas State, Whitworth led a resurgence in special teams play as the Bobcats led the Sun Belt Conference in punt returns and kickoff coverage during the 2020 season. During that season, The Bobcats featured Texas State's first FBS First-Team All-American return specialist Jeremiah Haydel, an All-Sun Belt Conference punter, and kicker. Haydel ranked third nationally in combined kick return yardage and was one of only two FBS players to return a kickoff and punt for touchdowns in his first season as a returner. Seamus O'Kelly was named Second-Team All-Sun Belt Conference punter by Pro Football Focus after averaging 41.0 yards on 57 punts. Phil Steele named Seth Keller a Fourth-Team All-Sun Belt kicker after scoring 62 points with eight field goals and 32 extra points.

The Bobcat offense was also stellar in 2020, increase its rushing output by nearly 65 percent from the previous season and averaged 369.7 yards of total offense and 27.7 points per game. It was the most yards gained for the Bobcats since 2015 and the most points scored since 2014.

Whitworth also coached running backs Brock Sturges, Calvin Hill, and Jahmyl Jeter, who combined to rush for 1453 yards and 13 touchdowns on 259 carries in 2020. Hill was a Third-Team All-Sun Belt selection by Pro Football Focus, and Sturges was named Honorable Mention All-Sun Belt in a poll of Sun Belt coaches and media.

The Bobcats also ranked third among Sun Belt leaders in kickoff returns with a 23.1 average in 2019. DeJordan Mask led the league in kickoff returns with a 29.5 average, while Hutch White was second in punt returns with an 8.6 average that year.

Prior to Texas State, Whitworth spent four seasons (2015-18) at Portland State and turned former wide receiver David Jones into a 1,000-yard rusher as a running back. The Vikings ran for over 3,000 yards and 33 touchdowns in 2015. Meanwhile on special teams, kicker Jonathan Gonzales enjoyed an All-Conference season and punter Marcus Kinsella became one of the most reliable players on the team, kick returner Kahlil Dawson averaged over 25 yards per return, and long snapper Kameron Canaday earned Third-Team All-American honors.

In 2016, Portland State's offensive backfield averaged 243 yards per game and 35 total touchdowns. Nate Tago and Paris Penn earned Honorable Mention All-Big Sky Conference honors after combining for over 1,400 yards and 20 TDs. Meanwhile, Gonzales was named Third-Team All-Big Sky and Kinsella was an Honorable Mention All-Big Sky selection.

Mitchell Thompson earned Second Team All-Big Sky honors in 2016 and was an Honorable Mention selection in 2017 as a special teams player. In 2018, his freshman kicker Cody Williams was named a Third-Team All-Conference kicker.

Whitworth arrived at Portland State after serving in a similar role at Central Washington from 2011-14. In 2013, his Wildcat special teams ranked fifth nationally in punt return defense, 11th in kick return average and 13th in kick coverage. The 2014 team led the nation in kick return average (25.7) and 18th in punt return average (14.4).

Before joining the Central Washington's staff, he was the offensive coordinator at Montana Western in 2010, and Idaho State's special teams recruiting and summer coordinator from 2003-10.

His 2010 special teams unit was the top overall unit in the Big Sky Conference after leading the league net punting, kick return defense and punt returns, and finishing second in kick returns.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant with the Bengals, working with the running backs and special teams, from 2001-2002.

Whitworth also played at Idaho State, earning Honorable Mention All-Conference honors as a running back and kick returner. He earned bachelor's degree in business administration and business finance at Idaho State in 2001.

Whitworth and his wife, Erin have one daughter, Olivia and one son, Colt.

RAY
CORNERBACKS / SECOND YEAR

Ray Brown begins his second season on Head Coach Jake Dickert's staff, serving as cornerbacks coach. Brown is no stranger to Pullman as he spent the 2013 season as a defensive graduate assistant on Mike Leach's staff.

During the 2022 season, Brown was part of a defense that ranked third in the Pac-12 Conference in scoring at 22.9 ppg. He coached Chau Smith-Wade to 2022 All-Pac-12 Conference Honorable Mention honors as the sophomore earned the Pac-12's third-best defensive grade among all cornerbacks according to PFF College. Cougar cornerbacks accounted for four interceptions on the season and only allowed more than two passing touchdowns in a game twice on the season.

Brown spent the 2021 season coaching cornerbacks at Utah State, helping the Aggies to an 11-3 record and a victory over Oregon State in the Jimmy Kimmel LA Bowl. The win capped an incredible turnaround for the Aggies, after going 1-5 during the 2020 season.

Prior to Utah State, Brown spent two seasons (2019-20) as the cornerbacks coach at Troy and three seasons (2016-18) at Abilene Christian, where he coached the defensive backs.

In 2020, Brown coached Terence Dunlap to second-team all-Sun Belt Conference honors at Troy as he finished sixth in the league with three interceptions and 11th with nine passes defended.

In his first season with the Trojans, Brown coached Will Sunderland to first-team all-Sun Belt honors as he intercepted four passes, returning one for a touchdown. Following his collegiate career, Sunderland signed a free agent contract with the Green Bay Packers.

While at Abilene Christian, the Wildcats were among the best in the nation defensively in 2018 and set a school record with 13 interceptions, paced by all-Southland Conference honorable mention selection Adonis Davis' four picks, as he led the league and ranked ninth at the FCS level in passes defended. Brown also coached Bolu Onifade to second-team all-Southland Conference honors that season.

In 2018, the Wildcats ranked sixth nationally in fourth-down defense (26.3 percent), 15th nationally in third-down defense (30.3 percent) and 16th nationally in rushing defense (113 yards per game). Additionally, Abilene ranked third in the Southland Conference in scoring defense and red zone defense. That season, the Wildcats knocked off No. 11 Nicholls State as the Abilene defense held the Colonels to just 12 points.

In his second season at Abilene Christian, Brown's secondary posted the top passing defense in the Southland Conference, allowing just 196.7 yards per game, an improvement of 81.8 yards per game from the previous season. That season, Brown coached Brandon Richmond to all-Southland Conference honorable mention honors.

Prior to his stint at Abilene Christian, Brown spent a pair of seasons as a graduate assistant at Arizona State (2014-15) working with the Sun Devils' cornerbacks. Arizona State won the 2015 Sun Bowl and completed just the second back-to-back 10-win seasons in school history, while cornerback Kareem Orr earned Freshman All-America honors. The Sun Devils ranked 23rd nationally in interceptions during his second season and 29th his first season.

Brown also played a key role in Arizona State signing the No. 1- and No. 2-rated junior college cornerbacks in the country, along with Orr, who led the Pac-12 in interceptions as a freshman.

Additionally, Brown coached Damarious Randall, who was selected by the Green Bay Packers in the first round of the 2015 NFL Draft with the 30th selection.

Brown began his Division I coaching career as a graduate assistant working with the safeties at Washington State in 2013, when the Cougars made their first bowl appearance in 10 years. Safety Deone Bucannon earned All-America honors, was rated the top strong safety in the country by NFL.com, and was selected by the Arizona Cardinals in the first round of the 2014 NFL Draft with the 27th selection.

Following his playing career at East Central University in Ada, Oklahoma, as a four-year starter at cornerback, Brown served as the running backs coach and run game coordinator at his alma mater for two years (2010-11), before taking over as the special teams coordinator and defensive backs coach at Oklahoma Baptist for the 2012 season.

Brown received his bachelor's degree in business marketing from East Central in 2009 and his master's degree in sports administration from East Central in 2011.

Brown and his wife, Amber, have three children, Gavin, Rylin and Peyton.

NICK
EDWARDS
WIDE RECEIVERS / FIRST YEAR

Nick Edwards begins his first season on Head Coach Jake Dickert's staff after being named the Cougars' wide receivers coach on Jan. 24, 2023.

Edwards is no stranger to the Pacific Northwest or the Pac-12, having graduated from Eastern Washington University and also spending three seasons on the staff at California.

Edwards arrives in Pullman having spent the 2022 season as an offensive assistant with the Atlanta Falcons, working alongside the offensive coordinator with game plan duties.

Edwards joined Atlanta's staff after spending two seasons (2020-21) as the offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach at Cal Poly University in San Luis Obispo, Calif. In 2020, Edwards participated in the NFL's Bill Walsh Diversity Coaching Fellowship with the Minnesota Vikings.

Prior to his time at Cal Poly, Edwards spent three seasons (2017-19) as the wide receivers and running backs coach at Cal. Edwards spent his first two campaigns at Cal working with the team's wide receivers, including the duo of Vic Wharton III and Kanawai Noa, before coaching running backs in 2019.

Edwards also spent three seasons (2014-16) at his alma mater, Eastern Washington University, as the wide receivers coach where he coached future NFL wide receivers Cooper Kupp and Kendrick Bourne. In 2015, Kupp was named the FCS ADA National Offensive Player of the Year, STATS FCS National Offensive Player of the Year and was first-team All-Big Sky for a second consecutive season. In 2016, both Kupp and Bourne earned all-conference honors, while Kupp earned FCS ADA National Offensive Player of the Year for a second consecutive year.

As a student-athlete, Edwards played four seasons (2009-12) at Eastern Washington University, where he helped the Eagles win the 2010 FCS national title as a sophomore when he started all 15 games and had 57 catches for 614 yards with seven touchdown grabs. As a junior in 2011, Edwards was selected to nine FCS All-America teams – seven first-team selections – after catching a school-record 95 passes for 1,250 yards and 19 touchdowns to lead the FCS. After graduating in 2012, he was signed by the Minnesota Vikings following the 2013 NFL Draft. Edwards was on offseason NFL rosters with Arizona and Seattle and turned down an opportunity to play for Edmonton in the Canadian Football League before moving into coaching full-time in 2014.

A graduate of Foss High School in Tacoma, Wash., Edwards and his wife, Macca, have two sons, Kashmir and Kyrie.

FRANK
EDGES / FIRST YEAR

Frank Maile begins his first season on Jake Dickert's staff after being named the Cougars' edges coach January 6 2023.

Maile (MY-lay) spent the previous two seasons at Boise State where he served as the Broncos' assistant head coach and defensive line coach. During the 2022 season, the Bronco defense led the way to a 10-4 overall record, including a victory over North Texas in the Frisco Bowl. The Broncos finished ninth in total defense, sixth in pass defense and 16th in scoring defense. Senior defensive tackles Scott Matlock and Devini Obichere led all defensive linemen with 6.5 tackles-for-loss while senior edge Demetri Washington had a team-best 4.5 sacks.

Under Maile's guidance in 2021, seven different Bronco defensive linemen registered a sack, including 2021 All-Mountain West Second-Team honoree Scott Matlock who notched a team-leading seven sacks. Matlock also accounted for 8.5 tackles-for-loss, the most among all Bronco defenders, and his 41 tackles (29 solo) led all Boise State defensive linemen.

Prior to Boise State, Maile spent five years at his alma mater, Utah State. In 2020, he served as the Aggies' co-defensive coordinator and defensive line coach. He was also the interim head coach for Utah State's final three games of the season.

Maile began his coaching career as a defensive graduate assistant at Utah State in 2009. He moved into a full-time role as the Aggies' defensive line coach in 2011.

After a two-year stint (2014-15) at Vanderbilt as the defensive line coach, he returned to his alma mater as the Aggies' assistant head coach, co-defensive coordinator and defensive line coach in 2016. He was the interim head coach in Utah State's 2018 New Mexico Bowl victory over North Texas.

In 2019, he worked with tight ends. Four Aggies earned All-Mountain West honors on offense, including tight end Caleb Repp, an honorable mention selection. Repp signed an NFL contract with the Atlanta Falcons.

During the 2018 campaign, Maile helped coach a Utah State defense that led the country in turnovers forced (32), interceptions (22) and three-and-outs forced (5.69 per game). The Aggies also ranked third in the NCAA with six defensive touchdowns. The Aggies tied the school records for wins (11) and home wins (six). Utah State was nationally-ranked for six-straight weeks for the first time in school history and finished No. 22 in the final Associated Press poll.

The Aggies allowed 182.5 passing yards per game in 2017 to rank 19th nationally. Utah State forced 29 turnovers, sixth-most in the NCAA. The Aggies were tied for second nationally with 16 forced fumbles and were fourth with five defensive touchdowns.

Utah State yielded 176.5 passing yards per game in 2016 to rank 10th in the NCAA. Ricky Ali'ifua was All-Mountain West honorable mention before signing a free agent contract with the Kansas City Chiefs and playing for the Seattle Seahawks.

At Vanderbilt, Maile helped the Commodores rank in the top 35 nationally in nine defensive categories during the 2015 season.

From 2011-13, Maile coached five all-conference honorees in his role as the defensive line coach, including first-team selection Al Lapuaho. Utah State was 28-13 during that span, won a pair of bowl games (three appearances) and captured the 2012 Western Athletic Conference title.

In 2013, the Aggies' defense led the Mountain West in scoring defense (17.1 points per game), rushing defense (106.7 yards per game) and total defense (330.9 yards per game). Utah State was in the top 15 nationally in all three categories.

The Utah State defense was ranked in the nation's top 15 in five categories during the 2012 season, including leading the WAC in scoring defense (15.4 points per game) and total defense (322.1 yards per game). The Aggies also led the WAC in total defense (366.2 yards per game) in 2011.

A native of West City, Utah, Maile played at Utah State from 2004-07. He made 21 starts in 42 appearances and was a team captain as a senior in 2007.

Maile earned his bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies from Utah State in 2007 and added a master's in education in 2010.

He and his wife, Heather, have three sons, Maximus, Samson and Titan, and a daughter, Cecilia.

JORDAN
SAFETIES / NICKELS
FOURTH YEAR

Jordan Malone begins his fourth season at Washington State, and third coaching the safeties and nickels on Head Coach Jake Dickert's staff. Malone began in 2020 as a defensive analyst before being named the cornerbacks coach Oct. 22, 2021 under Dickert.

During the 2022 season, the Cougar defense ranked third in the Pac-12 Conference in scoring at 22.9 ppg, and second in red zone defense. Cougar safeties and nickels accounted for five of WSU's 12 interceptions, while also having three of the top five tacklers in 2022. Malone mentored safety Jaden Hicks to Freshman All-America Third Team honors by College Football News, finishing second on team with 76 tackles, most among Pac-12 Conference freshmen defenders. He also guided redshirt-senior nickel Armani Marsh to All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention accolades for the second-straight season.

Malone finished his second year on the Cougar coaching staff in 2021, beginning the year as a defensive analyst before being elevated to cornerbacks coach on Oct. 22. During his seven games overseeing that unit, the Cougar pass defense showed dramatic improvement, allowing 193.7 yards per game over the final six contests, compared to 236.6 ypg in the first seven games. Under Malone, the Cougar defense picked off eight passes in the final six games.

Malone mentored senior Jaylen Watson, who garnered 2021 All-Pac-12 honorable mention honors for the second-straight season, while Watson and fellow senior Derrick Langford Jr. each had two interceptions in 2021.

Prior to WSU, Malone worked three seasons as the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Augustana University (S.D.) where he produced one of the top Division II defenses in the country in 2019; fourth in scoring defense, fifth in takeaways, eighth in the third-down defense, No. 12 in rush defense and No. 19 in total defense. In his three seasons leading the Augustana defense, Malone produced one All-American, one All-Region selection and 16 all-conference honorees.

Prior to Augustana, Malone worked the 2015 and 2016 seasons as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Minnesota State University, Mankato where he coached the defensive backs, the punt and punt return teams and served as the recruiting coordinator. The 2015 defense finished among the top Division II defenses in the country including total defense, rushing defense, scoring defense and fourth-down defense while the punt team led all of Division II in net punting. In 2015, Malone helped three players earn All-NSIC honorees, including an All-NSIC First Team selection in Jared Gillespie. Senior Justin Otto also went on to receive CoSIDA Academic All-American honors. In total, Maverick defensive backs tallied a total of nine interceptions and one fumble recovery.

In 2014, Malone served as the defensive backs coach and special teams coordinator for Augustana (S.D.). The Augie defensive backs tallied eight interceptions and two fumble recoveries. Prior to joining the Vikings' coaching staff, Malone spent the 2013 season with Augustana (Ill.) where he was responsible for the defensive backs and the strength and conditioning program. Malone boasted one all-conference player as the defense notched 24 turnovers.

Malone spent the 2010 season as the defensive coordinator and co-special teams coordinator at Simon Fraser University in British Columbia. Prior to his stint north of the border, he coached the outside linebackers and nickel backs at Central Arkansas in the 2008 and 2009 seasons where he guided three all-conference players. Malone also served as a graduate assistant working with the defensive backs at Emporia State University (Kan.) and Wayne State College (Neb.).

In the classroom, Malone earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from MSU in 2006, before completing his master's degree in health, physical education and recreation at Emporia State in 2007.

As a player, Malone played in 44 games through four seasons with the Purple and Gold and received All-NCC First Team and All-American honors in 2004. For his career, he tallied 216 tackles, seven interceptions, three fumble recoveries and ranked eighth all-time in solo tackles 141.

CLAY
MCGUIRE
OFFENSIVE LINE / SECOND YEAR

Clay McGuire begins his second season on Head Coach Jake Dickert's staff, having been named the Cougars' offensive line coach Jan. 3, 2022. McGuire is no stranger to Pullman, having serviced in a similar role on Mike Leach's staff from 2012-17.

During the 2022 season, McGuire mentored a young offensive line that helped WSU produce 360.7 yards of total offense while finishing third in the Pac-12 in both pass attempts and completions. Left tackle Jarrett Kingston earned All-Pac-12 honorable mention and the offensive line blocked for All-Pac-12 honorable mention running back Nakia Watson who scored 13 total touchdowns and four 100-yard games.

McGuire returned to Pullman after spending the 2021 season as the offensive line coach at USC. In 2021, the Trojans led the Pac-12 in total offense at 443.9 yards per game, was first in passing offense at 298.3 ypg, and was first in both pass attempts and completions. The Trojan offensive line allowed the third-fewest sacks in the conference during the 2021 season.

He arrived at USC after coaching the offensive line at Texas State in 2019 and 2020. Bobcats left tackle Dalton Cooper was a 2020 Freshman All-American second teamer.

McGuire was the offensive coordinator and running backs coach at Texas Tech, his alma mater, in 2018, working under head coach Kliff Kingsbury. The Red Raiders ranked in the national Top 16 in both total offense (485.2) and points (37.3).

This marks McGuire's second stint as the Cougars offensive line coach, the first being from 2012-17. During that time, he recruited and mentored such notable Cougars as two-time (2016-17) All-American first-teamer Cody O'Connell, also an Outland Trophy finalist in 2016, 2015 All-Pac-12 first team pick Joe Dahl, who spent five seasons with the Detroit Lions, Cole Madison, two seasons with the Green Bay Packers, current Philadelphia Eagles first-round pick Andre Dillard, and four-time All-Pac-12 Conference selection Abe Lucas. The Cougars finished among the nation's top 10 teams in passing offense throughout McGuire's tenure and played in 4 bowl games (2013 New Mexico, 2015 Sun, 2016 and 2017 Holiday).

The 2017 Cougar offensive line, led by consensus All-American Cody O'Connell and 2019 first-round pick Andre Dillard, helped the WSU offense post 5,653 yards of total offense, eighth all-time in school history. WSU reached its third-straight bowl game with a second-consecutive appearance at the Holiday Bowl.

In 2016, the Cougar offensive line blocked for an offense that finished third in the nation in passing, 18th in total offense, and rushed for 120.0 ypg, up 40 ypg from 2015. The line was led by unanimous All-American Cody O'Connell, who became just the second unanimous All-American in WSU history and was an Outland Trophy finalist.

In 2015 the Cougar offense again led the nation in passing at 389.5 ypg, the second-highest mark in Pac-12 history. The offensive line also bolstered the WSU running game as the Cougars rushed for 80.0 ypg in 2015, more than double the output from 2014. Senior Joe Dahl was named a Second-Team All-American by USA Today and was a First-Team All-Pac-12 selection.

In 2014 the Cougar offensive line paved the way as WSU led the nation in passing at 477.7 yards per game, setting a Pac-12 record as well. The WSU offense also set 10 school single-season records, including total offense, first downs and yards per game. The offensive line was playing with three players seeing their first significant college action while junior offensive lineman Joe Dahl received All-Pac-12 honorable mention.

McGuire saw the offensive line make huge strides in 2013 from the season prior, doubling the yards-per-carry average, nearly doubling the total rushing yardage and nearly cutting the number of sacks allowed in half. The WSU offense finished with the fourth-best passing attack in the country, setting Pac-12 single-season records for completions, pass attempts and

WSU single-season records for passing yards and total yards.

McGuire was the running backs coach and special teams coordinator at East Carolina in 2010 and 2011, working alongside offensive coordinator Lincoln Riley. The Pirates were in the 2010 Liberty Bowl.

Prior to East Carolina, McGuire enjoyed a total of nine bowl appearances as a player and staff member at his alma mater, Texas Tech, before his move to East Carolina.

He had spent four seasons on the Texas Tech staff, but the 2009 campaign however, marked his first heading the running backs corps - a position he lettered in for four years. His move to the backfield followed service as special teams coordinator in 2008, an offensive graduate assistant in 2007 and a video intern in 2006.

McGuire's three primary running backs, which included two freshmen, all averaged over 5.0 yards a carry in 2009. Junior Baron Batch was Texas Tech's offensive MVP after racking up a team-high 1,279 all-purpose yards - 884 on the ground, 395 receiving - and 15 touchdowns. He assumed the special teams coordinator role early in 2007 on an interim basis, after McNeill moved over to the defensive coordinator position before the fifth game.

The special teams units responded to McGuire immediately when he took over in 2007 as the punt team thwarted any attempt at return opportunities for the opposition. Tech opponents averaged a mere 6.7 yards per return and returned only 18 of 30 punts. The kickoff coverage unit was also second in the Big 12.

McGuire appeared in 45 games at the H-Back position for the Red Raiders during the course of four seasons from 2000 to 2004. A big, physical player, he was noted for his effectiveness as a blocker in Tech's offense, and also factored into the passing game, catching 32 passes for 320 yards and two touchdowns during his career.

McGuire earned a bachelor's degree in history from Texas Tech in 2004 before following with a master's in secondary education in 2007.

McGuire, a native of Crane, Texas, and his wife, Jeri, are the parents of two daughters - Jorja and Addison.

Brent Vernon begins his second season as the chief of staff for Head Coach Jake Dickert. Dickert and Vernon spent three seasons together (2017-19) when both worked on Craig Bohl's staff at Wyoming. Vernon's role at WSU includes the administrative operations of the team, including oversight of team budget, serving as liaison with the athletic administration as well as academic and Cougar medical staffs. In his first season with the Cougars, WSU earned a trip to the LA Bowl.

Vernon arrived in Pullman after spending the previous 13 seasons at Wyoming. Vernon was promoted to Associate A.D. for Football Operations in the summer of 2018. He was previously promoted to the position of Assistant Athletics Director for Football Operations in the spring of 2017. He previously served in the roles of Executive Assistant to the Head Coach and Assistant Director of Football Operations in 2012. In 2011, Vernon served as Wyoming's Director of Recruiting, being promoted from his previous position as the Cowboys' offensive graduate assistant in 2009 and '10.

In 2021, Vernon was a member of Wyoming's victorious Famous Idaho Potato Bowl squad after Wyoming defeated Kent State, his 10th bowl game of his young career. He helped the Cowboys to the 2019 NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl while helping in Wyoming's win in the 2017 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, appearance in the 2016 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl, its appearance in the 2011 Gildan New Mexico Bowl and its 2009 New Mexico Bowl Championship, as the Cowboys defeated Fresno State 35-28 in double overtime. While a student assistant at Missouri, the Tigers appeared in four consecutive bowl games from 2005-08.

While at Wyoming, Vernon coordinates a variety of administrative duties for Cowboy Football, including: planning team travel, monitoring the football budget, serving as a liaison with the academic counseling staff and helping coordinate team functions.

While serving as the Director of Recruiting in 2011, Vernon was responsible for coordinating all recruiting efforts for Cowboy Football, including: implementing Wyoming's recruiting plan for the year, scheduling recruiting travel, organizing recruiting weekends, assuring compliance with NCAA rules relative to recruiting and managing the recruiting budget.

Vernon was Wyoming's offensive graduate assistant in 2009 and 2010. He assisted with practice preparation, scout team coordination and a variety of other administrative and coaching duties for the Cowboy Offense. He also was involved in signaling plays from the sideline on game days.

Prior to Wyoming, Vernon was at the University of Missouri where he was a student assistant with the Mizzou Football program for five seasons from August 2004 to December 2008. At Missouri, he assisted the tight ends' coach, broke down practice and game film and prepared scouting reports. During that five-year span, Missouri enjoyed unprecedented success. The Tigers won the 2005 Independence Bowl over South Carolina, played Oregon State in the 2006 Sun Bowl, won the Cotton Bowl over Arkansas at the conclusion of the 2007 season and defeated Northwestern in the 2008 Alamo Bowl.

Vernon completed his bachelor of science degree in business administration, with an emphasis in management, at Missouri in December of 2008. Vernon achieved Dean's List honors all four years of college. He was also named the University of Missouri Athletics' Student Assistant of the Year in 2008.

He and his wife, Emily, were married in the summer of 2017. They have a son, Theo, and a daughter, Sophie.

Ben Iannacchione begins his first season on Head Coach Jake Dickert's staff after being named WSU Football's Head Strength and Conditioning Coach December 20, 2022. Iannacchione is no stranger to Dickert as the two worked together when both were on Craig Bohl's staff at Wyoming during the 2018-19 seasons.

Iannacchione comes to Pullman having spent the 2022 season as the head strength and conditioning coach at Akron on Joe Moorhead's staff. A former standout offensive lineman who played collegiately at Boise State, Iannacchione arrived at Akron after spending the 2021 campaign on the Pitt football strength and conditioning staff.

Iannacchione returned to his hometown of Pittsburgh with impressive coaching credentials having previously served as the director of sports performance for the football programs at Kansas (2020) and Wyoming (2018-19). Iannacchione was the associate strength and conditioning coach at LSU (2016-17), where he had oversight of the Tigers' running backs, fullbacks, tight ends, and linebackers.

Iannacchione worked at LSU for four years from 2011-15 before returning in 2016. After a one-year intern stint in Baton Rouge, Iannacchione was elevated to fulltime assistant strength coach in 2012, overseeing the training of the Tigers' offensive line. Additionally, he was the lead strength coach for the men's and women's swimming teams.

During his time at LSU, Iannacchione was an instrumental figure for six bowl teams, including the 2011 SEC-title team that advanced to the BCS National Championship Game.

In 2015, he was the head strength and conditioning coach at Youngstown State, where he worked primarily with the football program.

A first-team All-Quad East performer at Baldwin High School, Iannacchione played collegiately at Boise State, lettering twice on the offensive front. Over his four-year career (2005-08), the Broncos compiled a 44-8 record, including three Western Athletic Conference (WAC) titles and three bowl games. The 2006 team went 13-0 and earned a No. 5 final national ranking after beating Oklahoma in the Fiesta Bowl.

Iannacchione graduated from Boise State in 2008, earning a bachelor's degree in communications. He then earned a master's degree in kinesiology from LSU in 2012.

He and his wife, Renee, have three children: daughter Luciana and sons Salvatore and Sonny.

Former Cougar defensive lineman Kingston Fernandez returned to Pullman to begin his first season as Washington State's Assistant Director of Football Operations.

Fernandez worked the 2021 season coaching the defensive line at Willamette University in Oregon.

Fernandez played five seasons at Washington State (2014-18), lettering twice and was a member of four straight bowl teams. The Kapolei, Hawaii native appeared in eight games on the 2016 Holiday Bowl team, played in four games on the 2017 Holiday Bowl team and capped his career with the 2018 team who set a school record with 11 wins and a win in the Alamo Bowl.

Fernandez played at Kapolei High School where he earned All-State honors as a senior, was named a team captain and rated the No. 2 overall prospect in Hawaii.

Fernandez graduated with his degree in social sciences from Washington State in 2019. Fernandez and his wife, Miranda reside in Pullman.

Jake Beckett begins his second season on the Washington State Strength & Conditioning Staff after joining the Cougars in the spring of 2022.

Beckett arrived in Pullman after spending the previous year in a similar capacity at Florida Atlantic. From 2019-20, he served as a graduate assistant at the University of South Carolina, where he was responsible for the day-to-day accountability of the players, Catapult analytics and assisted with daily weight room training sessions and on-field sprinting and conditioning sessions.

Beckett has spent time as a strength and conditioning coach at Tennessee Martin at Middle Tennessee State after beginning his coaching career as an intern at South Carolina.

Beckett played three seasons of Rugby at Coastal Carolina, earning 2015 NCAA Division II honorable mention honors. He received his bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science in 2016 and his master's in family and consumer science from Tennessee Martin in 2020.

Tristan White begins his first season on the Cougar Head Coach Jake Dickert's staff as an assistant football strength and conditioning coach.

White arrived in Pullman having spent the past three years with the football program at Montana State. He began as a graduate assistant for the first two years before moving into a full-time role as the assistant director of football strength and conditioning in January of 2022.

White began in the field serving an internship with the University of Wyoming football programs in 2019 while finishing up his undergraduate degree in Kinesiology. He also holds a master's of health science in community health from Montana State.

David Terrebonne begins his his season with the Cougars Football Staff as Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach.

Prior to joining the Washington State University staff, Terrebonne served as personal training counselor in Pasadena, Texas. He was also the director of sports performance for RedLine Athletics Webster, a speed and agility training center in Webster, Texas.

Additionally, Terrebonne has completed strength and conditioning internships for Texas Tech football and La Porte High School.

Terrebonne received his bachelor's degree in health human performance (strength and conditioning) from Henderson State University, where he was a member of the football team. In 2019 he served as team captain, served as a member of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC), and was a representative for the university at the NCAA APPLE Conference, an annual three-day national training institute for student-athletes, athletics administrators and campus partners dedicated to substance abuse prevention and health promotion of college athletes

Jonathan Amosa begins his first season with the Cougar Football program as an assistant strength and condition coach after joining Jake Dickert's staff in January of 2023.

Amosa arrives in Pullman having spent the past season as a part time strength and conditioning coach at Baylor University. The previous three seasons he served in an offensive quality control position at Montana State.

Amosa coached running backs at MSU-Northern during the 2018 season, also aiding in recruiting and strength and conditioning. A former Washington Huskies walk-on, he worked his way into a full scholarship in his third season and became the team's starting fullback for the 2011 and 2012 seasons. He earned Honorable Mention All-Pac 12 academic honors in 2012. Amosa was UW's Office of Minority Affairs and Diversity Scholar that season.

He spent training camp time with the Green Bay Packers (2013) and Seattle Seahawks (2016).

Colt Garrett begins his first season on Head Coach Jake Dickert's staff, serving as a graduate assistant on the offensive side of the ball.

Garrett spent the 2022 season as an offensive quality control assistant at Western Kentucky, working under current Cougar Offensive Coordinator Ben Arbuckle. Last season, Western Kentucky posted a 9-5 record, defeated South Alabama in the New Orleans Bowl, and finished seventh nationally in total offense and second in passing offense.

During the 2021 season, Garrett worked as a graduate assistant coach at Mary Hardin-Baylor, working primarily with quarterbacks. That season, Mary Hardin-Baylor went 15-0 and captured the NCAA Division III National Championship.

Garrett played quarterback at Texas Tech University from 2016-2019 and at Angelo State University in 2020. He was an All-Big XII Academic Team member from 2016-2018 and earned all-LSC honors in 2019 and 2020. Garrett graduated from Texas Tech University in 2019 with a degree in kinesiology. He also earned his MBA from Angelo State University in 2020.

Luke Hyde begins his second season on Head Coach Jake Dickert's staff, serving as an offensive graduate assistant, working primarily with the offensive line.

Hyde arrived in Pullman having spent the previous two seasons as a graduate assistant at the University of Idaho, working with the offensive line. During the 2021 season, the Vandals led the Big Sky Conference in rushing touchdowns with 28. Hyde also worked closely with fullback Logan Kendall, a two-time First-Team All-Big Sky selection and 2020 Phil Steele Third-Team All-American.

During his undergraduate years at Idaho, he was a three-year letterwinner on the Vandal football team, working as a tight end, fullback and long snapper while also playing special teams.

Hyde received his bachelor's from Idaho in secondary education, social studies and physical education, and is current working towards a master's of education, educational leadership.

Patrick Belony starts his first season on Head Coach Jake Dickert's staff, beginning the 2023 season as a defensive graduate assistant.

Belony arrives in Pullman having spent the past two years in a similar role at his alma mater, Fresno State. There he worked directly with the defensive line, his former position group as a Bulldog.

Belony played collegiately at Fresno State from 2015-18, helping the Bulldogs to two bowl games and a conference title. The 2018 Mountain West Championship season was his finest, playing in all 14 games, including the conference championship game and the Las Vegas Bowl, and totaled 16 tackles with 2.0 tackles for loss, 1.5 sacks and two fumble recoveries. The 2018 Bulldogs finished the season with a 12-2 record, earning the most wins in a single-season in Fresno State history.

Belony was also a part of the Bulldogs' 2017 Hawai'i Bowl victory over Houston. In 2017, Fresno State became the second program in FBS history to go from a double-digit loss season to a double-digit win season.

Prior to his time at Fresno State, Belony spent one season (2014) at Antelope Valley College.

Belony, a native of North Miami Beach, Florida, earned his undergraduate degree from Fresno State in communication. As a graduate assistant, he is working towards his master's in education.

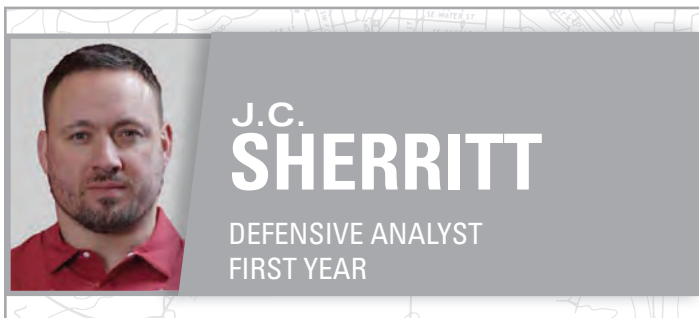

George Hicks III begins his first season on Head Coach Jake Dickert's staff, serving as a defensive graduate assistant.

Hicks begins his coaching career at his alma mater, where he spent five seasons in a Cougar uniform (2017-21).

On the field, Hicks appeared in 46 games totaling 127 tackles, four of those being for loss. He had two career interceptions, three forced fumbles, and 12 pass breakups during his time at WSU. During his final year, Hicks was named Pac-12 Conference Defensive Player of the Week after making 10 tackles and an interception in the win over Oregon St. Hicks helped WSU to four bowl games and matched a career high of six tackles against Air Force in the Cheez-It Bowl during his junior year.

Hicks graduated in 2021 with a bachelor's degree in political science.

J.C. Sherritt returns to Pullman after being named a defensive analyst on Head Coach Jake Dickert's staff in January 2023. Sherritt attended Pullman High School where he led the Greyhounds to the 2005 Washington 2A state title.

Sherritt arrives in Pullman following one season at Auburn, also as a defensive analyst. From 2020-21, Sherritt served as the defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at Cal Poly, where he worked alongside current Cougars wide receivers coach Nick Edwards, who was the Mustangs' offensive coordinator.

He began his coaching career in 2019 following his Canadian Football League retirement as linebackers coach for the Calgary Stampeders. Calgary was 12-6 in 2019, finishing second in the CFL's West Division and qualifying for the playoffs.

Undrafted in the 2011 NFL Draft out of Eastern Washington, Sherritt signed a free agent contract with Edmonton of the Canadian Football League and played for the Eskimos for eight seasons. In 109 games at linebacker, Sherritt accumulated 552 tackles with 15 sacks. He also intercepted 14 passes, forced 17 fumbles and scored one touchdown in 2016 on a 43-yard interception return against Ottawa.

A team captain for five seasons, Sherritt was named CFL Most Outstanding Defensive Player and CFL All-Star in 2012 after breaking the league record for tackles in a season with 130 and helped the Eskimos to the 2015 Grey Cup. In the first game of the 2017 season, Sherritt ruptured his Achilles but bounced back in 2018 by playing all 18 games and recording 100 tackles, including three sacks.

As a collegiate player, Sherritt played at Eastern Washington from 2006-10, setting the Big Sky record for most tackles in a season in 2009 with 170 and improved that mark in 2010 with 176 en route to the Buck Buchanan Award, which goes to the best defensive player in the FCS. Sherritt was a member of the Eagles' FCS national championship team in 2010, the same year he was the Big Sky Conference's defensive player of the year. He finished his Eagle career as a two-time Consensus First-Team FCS All-American (2009-10), with 432 tackles, No. 4 in the Big Sky record book. A three-time Big Sky All-Academic Team member, 2010 ESPN Academic All-American and two-time team captain, Sherritt earned his bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies at in 2011.

A native of Truckee, Calif., Sherritt is a 2006 graduate of Pullman (Wash.) High School, where he played linebacker and running back, helping lead his team to a perfect 14-0 record and the State 2A Championship in 2005. He was named Washington Player of the Year in 2005.

John Kuceyeski begins his first season on Head Coach Jake Dickert's staff, serving in an offensive quality control role.

Kuceyeski arrives in Pullman from Western Kentucky, where he spent one season as the Hilltoppers director of player personnel. There he worked alongside current Cougar Offensive Coordinator Ben Arbuckle. Last season, Western Kentucky posted a 9-5 record, defeated South Alabama in the New Orleans Bowl, and finished seventh nationally in total offense and second in passing offense.

Prior to Western Kentucky, Kuceyeski served as the offensive coordinator and tight ends coach at Eastern Illinois for three seasons from 2019 to '21. While at EIU, he coached three All-OVC Newcomers, two All-Conference honorees and one Freshman All-American.

Kuceyeski worked at Cornell University as the running backs and tight ends coach for one season (2016) before becoming the offensive line coach for two years (2017-18). He also made stops at Iowa State University (Spring 2016) as the director of scouting, three years at Toledo (2013-15), the final two as the recruiting coordinator and Western Michigan (Spring 2013) as the Director of Player Personnel. Kuceyeski served as an offensive graduate assistant coach at Northwestern (2010-12), where he assisted with the offensive line, tight ends, wide receivers and special teams.

Kuceyeski graduated from Penn State University in 2009 with a bachelor's degree in finance while serving as a student manager and undergraduate assistant coach during his four years at the school. He is a native of Libertyville, Ill.

Justin Mesa begins his third season in Pullman and second under Head Coach Jake Dickert.

In his first season on the Cougar staff, Mesa served as the Cougars' Director of Transfer Recruiting after being hired in the summer of 2021. Last season, Mesa worked in an offensive quality control role.

Prior to Washington State, Mesa was the head coach for two seasons (2019, 2020 (played in Spring, 2021) at San Marino High School in California. Prior to SMHS, Mesa was the Director of Player Personnel at Wyoming for two seasons (2017-18), coached the wide receivers and field goal units at Dixie State University in 2016 and served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Loyola High School in Los Angeles, Calif., for three seasons (2013-15).

Mesa spent six seasons serving in a variety of administrative and coaching roles at the University of Southern California from 2007-12. He originally was involved as a recruiting and operations assistant at USC in 2007 and later assisted in coaching the Trojan wide receivers in 2008. The 2009 season saw Mesa being hired as a graduate assistant coach and was elevated to an assistant quarterback coaching position in 2010 before coaching the USC tight ends for two seasons (2011-12).

While at USC, Mesa was part of the Trojans' Rose Bowl Championship teams at the conclusion of the 2007 and 2008 seasons. He was also on the coaching staff when USC won the 2009 Emerald Bowl and earned a berth in the 2012 Sun Bowl.

Mesa completed his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from USC in 2007.

Danny McDonald begins his first season on Head Coach Jake Dickert's staff, serving as the Cougar's defensive quality control assistant. McDonald is no stranger to Cougar Football, having played wide receiver at WSU from 2011-12.

McDonald arrives in Pullman having spent the past two seasons as a defensive analyst at Auburn, working under current Cougar defensive coordinator Jeff Schmedding.

Prior to Auburn, McDonald spent the 2020 campaign as defensive assistant at Boise State, also working on the staff under Schmedding, who was the Broncos' defensive coordinator. Boise State went 5-2 that season, reaching the Mountain West Conference Championship game.

McDonald spent the 2018-19 seasons in a quality control role at Eastern Washington, as the Eagles went a combined 19-8 and reached the 2018 NCAA Division I Football Championship Game.

Prior to arriving in Cheney, McDonald spent two seasons (2016-17) at West Texas A&M, starting as an outside receivers coach in 2016 before spending 2017 as a defensive graduate assistant.

In 2015, he was at East Los Angeles College in Los Angeles, Calif., working with wide receivers and serving as special teams coordinator. There, McDonald helped lead ELAC special teams to be the tenth-ranked unit, statistically, out of 70 junior college teams in the state and had one of his wide receivers earn all-conference honors. McDonald spent the two years previous as a volunteer assistant at Washington State University, assisting wide receivers coaches Dennis Simmons and David Yost.

McDonald played wide receiver in college at Washington State University (2011-12) for Mike Leach after playing quarterback at University of Puget Sound.

McDonald graduated with a degree in accounting from Washington State.

Dan Ferrigno is in his fourth season at Washington State and will serve in a special teams quality control role for the 2023 campaign. Ferrigno was originally hired prior to the 2020 season and worked as an offensive analyst and was named an offensive assistant Oct. 22, 2021.

Ferrigno (pronounced Fuh-REEN-yo) brings four decades of coaching experience with him after previous coaching stops at Cal Poly, San Jose State, Michigan, San Diego State, Pacific, San Francisco State, Western Michigan, not to mention stops at Pac-12 schools USC, California, Oregon State, and Oregon.

Ferrigno, who worked on the Michigan staff (2011-14) as the special teams coordinator and tight ends coach.

Under Ferrigno, the tight ends were a prominent part of the Michigan offense. In 2013, Devin Funchess earned Big Ten Kwalick-Clark Tight End of the Year honors and was named as one of eight semifinalists for the John Mackey Award, given annually to the most outstanding collegiate tight end. In 2012, Funchess earned Football Writers Association of America Freshman All-America honors. In 2012, punter Will Hagerup earned Eddleman-Fields Big Ten Punter of the Year honors.

As the wide receivers coach at California (2006-07), Ferrigno helped the Bears post a 10-3 record in 2006 en route to winning the Holiday Bowl and a No. 14 final ranking in the AP poll thanks in part to wide receiver DeSean Jackson's Pac-10-best nine touchdowns. Ferrigno was the tight ends coach at California (1996-98) where he coached Tony Gonzalez, a first-team all-Pac-10 selection and NFL All-Pro, Gonzalez was the 13th overall pick of the Kansas City Chiefs in the 1997 draft.

The former Riordan High School prep received his undergraduate degree in physical education in 1975 from San Francisco State, where he still holds the school's career records for receptions, receiving yards and touchdowns.

Ferrigno earned his bachelor's degree in physical education at San Francisco State in 1975 and his teaching credential from San Francisco State in 1978. The San Francisco native and his wife, Shawna have three daughters and three sons.

Rob Schlaeger begins his second season on the Washington State Football staff and first as the program's General Manager. Schlaeger spent the 2020 season in a similar role in Pullman.

Under Dickert, Schlaeger will oversee all of the Cougars' recruiting efforts, from identifying talent at the high school and collegiate levels, as well as managing the transfer portal.

Prior to WSU, Schlaeger spent the 2018 and 2019 seasons working with the defense at Minot State University (N.D.). Schlaeger worked as the MSU defensive front coordinator and defensive line coach. He worked the 2017 season as a defensive graduate assistant at the University of Wyoming, where he worked under Dickert, who was the school's safeties coach. Schlaeger also previously coached at West Florida and Southwest Minnesota State.

Schlaeger earned his bachelor's degree in physical education and sport management from Southwest Minnesota State in 2015, and completed his master's degree in coaching of sport, also from Southwest Minnesota State, in 2016.

Justin Kramer begins his second season on Head Coach Jake Dickert's staff, and first as the special assistant to the head coach and assistant offensive line coach. Last season, Kramer served as the program's director of scouting.

Kramer arrived in Pullman after spending the previous two seasons on the staff at Southeast Missouri State, where he was the assistant head coach and coached tight ends. It marked the second stint at SEMO for Kramer, who was an assistant coach with the Redhawks from 2006-12 before moving on to coaching positions at Missouri and Missouri State.

He was at Missouri State for five years (2015-19) as the Bears offensive coordinator and offensive line coach, and worked with the tight ends and special teams during his time in Springfield.

Under Kramer's direction, MSU's special teams were some of the most consistent units in the Missouri Valley Football Conference. In particular, the Bears ranked among the Valley's top three units in kickoff return average (22.2), punt return average (13.0), punt average (41.0) and field goals made per game (1.09) in 2018.

Kramer initially left SEMO to join Gary Pinkel's staff at Missouri, where he worked with Dave Steckel in shaping one of the SEC's top defensive units. Steckel was later the head coach at Missouri State.

Kramer was a key defensive analyst for the Tigers and also served as the assistant director of recruiting during his tenure at Mizzou. In that role, he helped oversee scouting and assisted the staff with scripting and practice planning. Kramer helped coordinate Missouri's football camps, as well.

At SEMO, Kramer coached four First-Team All-OVC offensive linemen. He mentored three All-Americans, including Sean Middleton, the FCS Rimington Award winner. Kramer's offensive line paved the way for the nation's #3 rushing offense and led the FCS with six sacks allowed in 2010.

Kramer joined the SEMO coaching staff for the first time as a graduate assistant in 2006, where he worked with the defensive line. He also served as director of football operations for a year and a half.

A native of Liberty, Missouri, Kramer was a four-year letterman at Southern Illinois from 2002-05. He was a standout offensive lineman who was part of three Saluki NCAA Playoff teams and three Missouri Valley Football Conference titles.

Kramer and his wife, Killian, have a daughter, Leyna, and a son, Vince.

Stacey Ford begins his second season on Head Coach Jake Dickert's staff as the Cougars' director of recruiting.

Ford arrived in Pullman having spent the previous three seasons as the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Warren High School in Los Angeles, Calif. He also served as the resident substitute teacher at the high school, performing instructional curriculum and classroom management for all subjects.

Previous coaching stops for Ford include working as a player personal scout intern during the summer of 2016 for the Oakland Raiders. There he was responsible for multiple player scouting reports, managed and updated departmental programs and databases, and assisted with life skills/education seminars and presentations. Later that fall, he served as linebacker coach at Cathedral High School.

Off the field, Ford has served as a behavior therapist for Autistic Learning and has released two rap albums under the name, King Stace: Energy and Trial & Error.

Ford received his degree in psychology and a minor in business administration in 2016 from Tuskegee University, where he was an outside linebacker on the football team.

IDAHO AT WASHINGTON STATE

Sept. 3, 2022 • Gesa Field • Att.: 25,233 • TV: Pac-12 Networks

PULLMAN, Wash. – Transfer quarterback Cameron Ward threw for 215 yards and three touchdowns Saturday as Washington State beat scrappy Idaho 24-17 in a season opener to win its 10th consecutive game in a long-running series between two schools whose campuses are located just eight miles apart. Ward completed 25 of 40 passes for Washington State, a Pac-12 team which leads the Battle of the Palouse series 72-17-3. But the Cougars had trouble putting away Idaho, an FCS team from the Big Sky Conference. It was not until Ward threw a touchdown pass to Jaylen Jenkins with 10:33 left in the fourth quarter, putting Washington State up 24-10, that the Cougars appeared to take control. But Idaho freshman quarterback Gevani McCoy replied with a 23-yard touchdown pass to Jordan Dwyer with 6:05 left in the game, cutting the WSU lead to 24-17. Washington State's ensuing drive ate up the clock, but Dean Janikowski missed a 23-yard field-goal attempt wide left with 53 seconds left. McCoy led Idaho down the field, but was intercepted at the goal line by Daiyan Henley to end the threat. McCoy completed 21 of 32 passes for 212 yards and was intercepted twice for Idaho, which was outgained 358 yards to 269 yards in the game. "We just have to keep getting better," new Idaho coach Jason Eck said. "Sometimes we kind of lagged on offense." Idaho last beat the Cougars in 2000. Ward, who transferred from FCS Incarnate Word, last year led the FCS in touchdown passes (47) and finished third in passing yardage (4,648). His arrival prompted former starter Jayden de Laura to transfer to Arizona. Washington State fumbled the ball away on its first possession and receiver Donovan Ollie fumbled after catching a pass on the Cougars' second possession. Marcus Harris scooped up the ball and ran 45 yards for a touchdown and a 7-0 Idaho lead. Ricardo Chavez kicked a 27-yard field goal for a 10-0 Idaho lead late in the first quarter. Janikowski missed a 51-yard field goal for Washington State early in the second quarter. Ward marched the Cougars 80 yards on nine plays late in the second quarter, capped by a 3-yard touchdown pass to Renard Bell to cut Idaho's lead to 10-7. Bell missed all of last season with an injury. McCoy was intercepted at midfield by defensive back Chau Smith-Wade on the next series. But the Cougars stalled and had to settle for Janikowski's 34-yard field goal that tied the score at 10-10 at halftime. Idaho took the opening drive of the second half, but turned the ball over on downs. Ward marched Washington State down the field and hit DeZhaun Stribling with a 13-yard touchdown pass for the Cougars' first lead at 17-10. STATS Idaho rushed the ball 34 times but only produced 62 yards ... Washington State fumbled three times and lost all three of them ... Ollie and Stribling each caught seven passes for Washington State. IDAHO PLAYS TOUGH Many of the recent games in this series have been blowouts by Washington State. But the Vandals showed plenty of game on Saturday, jumping to a 10-0 lead and staying alive until the closing seconds. THE TAKEAWAY Dickert got a tough win as he began his first full season as the Cougars' coach. He went 3-3 with a Sun Bowl berth last season as interim coach after Nick Rolovich was fired for refusing to get a COVID-19 vaccine. Idaho: Eck was coaching his first game at Idaho, replacing the fired Paul Petrino, and gave Washington State a stiffer challenge than expected. Washington State paid a $575,000 guarantee to Idaho, a former FBS program that dropped to FCS five years ago.

WASHINGTON STATE AT NO. 19 WISCONSIN

Sept. 10, 2022 • Camp Randall Stadium • Att.: 74,001 • TV: FOX

MADISON, Wisc. – Nakia Watson acknowledged having extra motivation this week facing his former team. No wonder he was a little more emotional than usual afterward. Watson scored both of Washington State's touchdowns as the Cougars upset No. 19 Wisconsin 17-14 on Saturday. Watson rushed for 522 yards and five touchdowns at Wisconsin from 2019-20 before transferring. Watson scored on a 2-yard run in the second quarter and put the Cougars ahead for good by turning a short completion into a 31-yard score with 5:12 left in the third period. Watson said he followed the counsel of Mark Atuaia, who continually reminded him to maintain his poise at all times. He only let his emotions out once the game ended as he thanked Atuaia for the advice. "The fireworks were going in my head when the clock hit zero," said Watson, who had 10 carries for 33 yards. Washington State (2-0) was about a 17-point underdog but survived a game that featured multiple bizarre plays to produce a happy homecoming for Watson and Cougars coach Jake Dickert. Dickert was born in the Milwaukee suburb of Waukesha, Wisconsin, about 65 miles east of Camp Randall Stadium. Dickert played for Wisconsin-Stevens Point from 2002-06, and about 200 friends and relatives gathered for a pregame tailgate. Several of them hung around for a postgame celebration around the visitors' locker room. This game featured two separate plays in which one team intercepted a pass and then fumbled the ball away, creating a first down for the team that threw the pick. Wisconsin (1-1) trailed 17-14 and faced third-and-6 from the Washington State 9 midway through the fourth quarter when defensive tackle Christian Mejia picked off a Graham Mertz pass before losing the football. Wisconsin recovered at the Washington State 20, but a personal foul on Badgers tight end Clay Cundiff pushed them back to the 35. Cundiff then caught a 24-yard pass, but Quinn Roff forced a fumble that Sam Lockett III recovered at the 12 with 5:14 left. Washington State never gave up possession the rest of the way. Those two mistakes spoiled Cundiff's day after he had caught two touchdown passes from Graham Mertz in the second quarter, a 17-yarder and a 10-yarder. Those were Cundiff's first touchdowns since the tight end dislocated his right ankle, broke a fibula and tore a foot ligament in a victory over Iowa last October. There was plenty of blame to go around for Wisconsin. The Badgers were penalized 11 times for 106 yards. Vito Calvaruso sent a 51-yard field goal wide right in the first quarter and was well short on a potential tying 43-yard attempt to start the final period. Another interception-turned-fumble led to Washington State's go-ahead score. The Cougars trailed 14-10 and had third and 10 from their 47 when quarterback Cameron Ward was hit by Kamo'i Latu just as he threw a pass that Wisconsin's Jay Shaw picked off. Washington State receiver Lincoln Victor then applied a hit that knocked the ball loose, and center Konner Gomness recovered the fumble at the Wisconsin 49. Six plays later, Watson caught a pass just beyond the line of scrimmage, made a spin move to get past Latu at the 30 and raced untouched the rest of the way. Washington State hung on from there and gave Watson and Dickert moments they'll never forget. THE TAKEAWAY Washington State: Ward went 17 of 28 for 200 yards but threw two interceptions. The Cougars still won thanks to a defense that limited Wisconsin's vaunted rushing attack to 174 yards on 44 carries. Wisconsin's Braelon Allen had 21 carries for 98 yards, just the second time in his last 11 games that he's been held below 100. Wisconsin: The Badgers controlled the ball for over 38 minutes, ran 25 more plays than Washington State and outgained the Cougars 401-253. But those penalties proved costly. Wisconsin had its highest totals in penalties and yardage since getting flagged 13 times for 125 yards in a 47-14 victory over Purdue in 2018.

COLORADO STATE AT WASHINGTON STATE
Sept. 17, 2022 • Gesa Field • Att.: 23,611 • TV: Pac-12 Networks

PULLMAN, Wash. — Cameron Ward threw for 292 yards and four touchdowns Saturday as Washington State pounded Colorado State 38-7. Washington State (3-0) scored on its first four possessions to put this game away early. Dickert said his team has bought into the concept of not looking ahead each week. Ward completed 26 of 36 passes and was intercepted once. Donovan Ollie and De'Zhaun Stribling each caught two touchdown passes. Freshman quarterback Clay Millen completed 24 of 34 passes for 211 yards for Colorado State (0-3), which has lost eight consecutive games dating to last season. Washington State sacked Millen seven times and limited Colorado State to 37 rushing yards on 30 carries. Washington State linebacker Daiyan Henley finished with 13 tackles, three sacks and three tackles for loss. The Cougars marched 46 yards in four plays on their first possession, with Ward throwing a 17-yard touchdown pass to Ollie for a 7-0 lead. The Cougars took over at midfield again on their second series and Ward fired a 13-yard touchdown pass to Stribling for a 14-0 lead just five minutes into the game. Cayden Camper missed a 44-yard field-goal attempt for Colorado State and WSU marched 73 yards, with Ward hitting Stribling for a 19-yard touchdown and a 21-0 lead with more than 3 minutes left in the first quarter. Ward found Ollie for a 2-yard touchdown pass to cap an 82-yard drive that gave WSU to a 28-0 lead at halftime. Washington State went into the locker room with a 255-82 advantage in yards gained, along with four sacks and eight tackles for loss. Colorado State rushed 18 times in the first half, for just 4 net yards. The Rams did not score until the fourth quarter, on a 14-yard pass from Millen to Justus Ross-Simmons. The Cougars scored only one touchdown in the second half. Colorado State coach Jay Norvell said he was disappointed in his team's play. The Rams have given up 23 sacks in three games this year, tops in the nation. HELLO AGAIN The teams have only played once before, when the Rams staged a huge comeback to defeat Washington State 48-45 in the 2013 New Mexico Bowl. FAST START Dickert became the first Washington State head coach to start his first full season with three consecutive victories since Mike Price in 1989. Dickert was named interim coach midway through last season when Nick Rolovich was fired for refusing the COVID-19 vaccine. BIG PICTURE Washington State: The Cougars were coming off an impressive 17-14 nonconference win at Wisconsin that knocked the Badgers out of the Top 25. This victory could lift the Cougars into the Top 25 for the first time since 2019. Colorado State: The Rams, a 16-point underdog, remain winless under new coach Jay Norvell, who was hired from Nevada. The Rams' offense is struggling to score.

NO. 15 OREGON AT WASHINGTON STATE
Sept. 24, 2022 • Gesa Field • Att.: 33,058 • TV: FOX

PULLMAN, Wash. — Oregon quarterback Bo Nix was piling up the yardage, but the No. 15 Ducks were not getting into the end zone in the first half against Washington State. That all changed with less than seven minutes left in the game, when Oregon scored three late touchdowns to come back for a 44-41 win over the Cougars on Saturday. Nix threw touchdown passes to Cam McCormick and Troy Franklin, and Mase Funa returned an interception 27 yards for a touchdown as Oregon (3-1, 1-0 Pac-12) erased a 34-22 deficit. Nix completed 33 of 44 passes for 428 yards with three touchdowns and one interception. The Ducks produced 624 yards of offense in winning their third consecutive game. Lanning said his team did not give up. Washington State coach Jake Dickert pointed to Oregon's offensive production. "You're not going to win a lot of games giving up 600 yards of offense," Dickert said. "We've got a lot of kids disappointed in there. "It was them out-executing us in the fourth quarter." Oregon's only loss was at No. 1 Georgia in the season opener. The Cougars scored on their first possession, as Ward capped a 75-yard drive by running the final five yards for a touchdown. Washington State linebacker Francisco Mauigoa returned an interception 95 yards for a touchdown and a 17-6 lead for the Cougars. They led 17-9 at halftime. Oregon came out fast in the second half, with Nix throwing a 12-yard touchdown pass to Mar'Keise Irving with less than a minute gone. Nix threw a 50-yard touchdown pass to Franklin with 1:21 left to give Oregon its first lead. Funa's interception return for a touchdown provided the deciding points with a minute left. Washington State's Nakia Watson added a touchdown in the closing seconds. WASHINGTON STATE OFFENSE Washington State QB Cameron Ward completed 37 of 48 passes for 375 yards, with two touchdowns and two interceptions. The Cougars produced 416 yards of offense in the game. WEBB TRIBUTE All six Pac-12 schools hosting conference games on Saturday honored Spencer Webb, a tight end on the Oregon football team who died this summer in a cliff-jumping accident. Washington State, Oregon State, Colorado, California, Washington and Arizona State, all painted the 4-yard line stripe yellow, instead of white, in honor of Webb. THE TAKEAWAY Washington State was looking to knock off a ranked team for the second time this season, after winning at Wisconsin earlier. Oregon had scored 110 points in its previous two games, victories over FCS Eastern Washington and No. 12 BYU, and proved its offense was tough to contain.

CALIFORNIA AT WASHINGTON STATE

Oct. 1, 2022 • Gesa Field • Att.: 23,021 • TV: Pac-12 Networks

PULLMAN, Wash. – Cameron Ward threw for 343 yards and three touchdowns as Washington State beat California 28-9 on Saturday, despite Ward being intercepted twice in the end zone. Renard Bell caught eight passes for 115 yards and a touchdown for Washington State (4-1, 1-1 Pac-12), which played four of its first five games at home. The Cougars were coming off a heart-breaking loss to Oregon last weekend. Jack Plummer completed 23 of 33 passes for 273 yards for California (3-2, 1-1), which was coming off a big win over Arizona. Both teams scored over 40 points last weekend, but points were scarce for most of this game. After a scoreless first quarter, Washington State got a 34-yard punt return by Robert Ferrel, coupled with a personal foul on the Bears, to start a drive on the Cal 20-yard line. Jaylen Jenkins ran the ball in from the 2 for a 7-0 lead. Cal drove to the WSU 24, but had to settle for a 42-yard field goal by Dario Longhetto to pull within 7-3. On WSU's next drive, Ward was intercepted in the end zone by Cal safety Daniel Scott. The Golden Bears advanced to midfield, but Plummer was sacked on consecutive plays and they had to punt. Washington State kept the 7-3 lead at halftime in a defensive battle, with each team barely topping 100 yards of offense. Washington State had the first drive of the second half, and Ward quickly connected with Bell on a 47-yard completion to the Cal 17. Ferrel caught a 17-yard touchdown pass barely a minute into the half for a 14-3 lead. Cal went three-and-out, and Washington State advanced to the Bears' 21-yard line. But a scrambling Ward was intercepted in the end zone again, this time by Craig Woodson, to kill the drive. Dickert said Ward kept his composure despite the interceptions. Jaydn Ott scored on a 2-yard run for California early in the fourth quarter, a touchdown set up by receptions of 30 and 49 yards by Jeremiah Hunter. The 2-point conversion pass failed and Washington State led 14-9. Ward threw a 37-yard touchdown pass to Bell four plays later to lift the Cougars to a 21-9 lead with 12 minutes left in the game. Ward added another touchdown pass to tight end Billy Riviere with six minutes left. Cal coach Justin Wilcox said his team could not get to Ward. TRIBUTE TO 1997 TEAM The 1997 Washington State team that broke a 61-year drought by winning the conference championship and going to the Rose Bowl was honored during Saturday's game. Dickert said that team shows what is possible at Washington State and had particular praise for former coach Mike Price, who led the Cougars to the Rose Bowl twice. "There should be a statue of coach Price somewhere," Dickert said. NOT OTT Ott, who ran for 274 yards and three touchdowns last week against Arizona, was held to 69 yards on Saturday. "We knew we had to corral him coming in," Dickert said. "He earned every yard he got." THE TAKEAWAY Washington State: The Cougars defense seems to have recovered from a collapse that allowed Oregon to score three quick touchdowns in the closing minutes of the Ducks' 44-41 win last week. California: The Golden Bears took a step back from their 49-31 win over Arizona last weekend.

WASHINGTON STATE AT NO. 6 USC

Oct. 8, 2022 • LA Memorial Coliseum • Att.: 63,204 • TV: FOX

LOS ANGELES – Caleb Williams threw two touchdown passes to Mario Williams and No. 6 Southern California shut out Washington State in the second half of a 30-14 victory Saturday night. Travis Dye rushed for 149 yards and a touchdown for the Trojans (6-0, 4-0 Pac-12), who stayed unbeaten in coach Lincoln Riley's first season. USC hadn't started a season 6-0 since 2006, near the height of coach Pete Carroll's powerhouse era. Caleb Williams went only 15 of 29 for 188 yards, but made big throws when necessary in an up-and-down performance. The Trojans didn't need their quarterback to be brilliant this time, with Dye and the offensive line doing much of the damage in a workmanlike second half. Cameron Ward passed for 172 yards while hitting Robert Ferrel and Nakia Watson for touchdowns for the Cougars (4-2, 1-2), who remained winless at the Coliseum since 2013. Washington State fell short of its second road victory over a Top 25 team this season when its offense bogged down on seven consecutive scoreless drives to end the game. Although USC's defense somehow didn't add to its 15 takeaways this season, the Trojans impressively shut down an opponent that had scored 107 points in its previous three games. Washington State didn't score in the final 43 minutes, and Tuli Tuipulotu got three of the Trojans' five sacks. USC even persevered through the absence of three significant players. Biletnikoff Award-winning receiver Jordan Addison left the Trojans' lineup during the second half with an undisclosed injury. USC already was without top linebacker Shane Lee due to injury, and it lost top safety Calen Bullock to a targeting call decided by video review in the second quarter. Mario Williams caught a 38-yard TD pass on USC's opening drive, but Washington State put together back-to-back long touchdown drives to start the second quarter. The Cougars gathered momentum during that second TD drive after Ward threw a quick slant to Ferrel and Bullock was ejected for his hit on the lightning-quick play. Washington State quickly drove for Watson's go-ahead touchdown catch, putting the Trojans behind at the Coliseum for the first time this season. USC reclaimed the lead shortly before halftime, but the Trojans and Washington State both were called for game-altering penalties during the drive, which ended in Dye's 4-yard TD run for a 17-14 lead. Dye had another TD run wiped out by a penalty in the third quarter before Mario Williams slid into the end zone to snag a pass inches off the grass for his second TD. Denis Lynch kicked two of his three field goals in the final 9:09 as USC's offense used up most of the clock. THE TAKEAWAY Washington State: The offense bogged down mightily in the second half, and while that's mostly a credit to USC's defense, fans won't like the mix of drops and unsuccessful play calls. The Cougars clearly have talent on offense, and they can do better than this. USC: The Trojans have reached the halfway point of Riley's debut regular season with very few reasons for complaints, beyond injuries. The defense is relying less on turnovers and more on solid overall play, which is encouraging as the Trojans head to a showdown with the defending Pac-12 champion Utah.

WASHINGTON STATE AT OREGON STATE

Oct. 15, 2022 • Reser Stadium • Att.: 28,735 • TV: Pac-12 Networks

CORVALLIS, Ore. — With Ben Gulbranson making his second career start at quarterback for Oregon State on Saturday night, the Beavers relied heavily on their running game and defense in a 24-10 victory over Washington State. Good strategy. Oregon State (5-2, 2-2 Pac-12 Conference) rushed for 203 yards and Jack Colletto ran for two short touchdowns in handing Washington State (4-3, 1-3) its third loss in four games. The Cougars relied almost exclusively on the arm of quarterback Cameron Ward, who threw 54 passes in the game. A 50-yard run off left tackle by Damien Martinez to the 4-yard line late in the third quarter set up Colletto's 2-yard touchdown run on the first play of the fourth quarter, giving the Beavers a 24-10 lead. Trailing by 14 points with six minutes remaining, Ward was forced out of the pocket on fourth-and-8 from the Cougars' 37-yard line and his desperation heave fell incomplete. Oregon State missed a 31-yard field goal with about three minutes left that would have made it a three-score game, but the Beavers defense sealed the win. The teams traded touchdowns in the third quarter. Midway through the third quarter Gulbranson rolled to his left and threw into the end zone to wide receiver Anthony Gould, who leaped high in the air and came down with a 17-yard touchdown catch, increasing the Beavers' lead to 17-3. Back came the Cougars. Ward completed five of six passes on an 80-yard touchdown drive, culminated by a 9-yard touchdown toss to running back Jaylen Jenkins that cut the Beavers' lead to 17-10 at 4:15 of the third quarter. The Cougars didn't score again. Silas Bolden ran the game's opening kickoff back 60 yards to set up Oregon State's first touchdown. Colletto, operating out of the wildcat formation, scored on a 1-yard run to give the Beavers a lead they would not relinquish. Washington State ran just six offensive plays for one yard in the first quarter. The Cougars were more effective offensively in the second quarter, but still trailed 10-3 at halftime. The second quarter was a struggle for Gulbranson, who didn't complete a pass as the Beavers managed just two first downs. THE TAKEAWAY Washington State: The Cougars didn't generate enough offense to avoid the loss. Ward continues to flash big-play capability, but the Cougars couldn't generate a consistent running game and were too one-dimensional. Oregon State: The Beavers were understandably conservative in their offensive approach and leaned on the running game. Martinez's 50-yard run late in the third quarter was one of the key plays in the game. Oregon State's three-back rotation of Martinez, Deshaun Fenwick and Jam Griffin continues to produce. Gulbranson had one touchdown pass and one interception. HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE Former Oregon State wide receiver Mike Hass, the 2005 Biletnikoff Award winner, was honored during an on-field ceremony in the first quarter. Hass will be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in December. IMPACTFUL INJURIES Oregon State quarterback Chance Nolan was in concussion protocol this week and missed his second consecutive game. Nolan, who was injured in the first quarter of the Utah game October 1, had made 19 consecutive starts before the injury. Washington State leading rusher Nakia Watson and starting wide receiver Renard Bell were held out due to injuries sustained in last week's loss at USC

NO. 14 UTAH AT WASHINGTON STATE

Oct. 27, 2022 • Gesa Field • Att.: 21,180 • TV: Fox Sports 1

PULLMAN, Wash. — Backup quarterback Bryson Barnes threw for 175 yards and a touchdown and No. 14 Utah beat Washington State 21-17 on Thursday night. Barnes, who started in place of injured Cam Rising, completed 17 of 27 passes for Utah (6-2, 4-1), which was off last week after edging Southern California in a 43-42 shootout Oct. 15. Utah coach Kyle Whittingham said his team found a way to win despite injuries to some key players. Rising made the decision not to play, Whittingham said. Barnes, a sophomore, said he was prepared when his time came. Cameron Ward completed 27 of 31 passes for 222 yards for Washington State (4-4, 1-4), which has lost four of its past five games and was also off a week ago. The Cougars were without rushing leader Nakia Watson and top receiver Renard Bell because of injuries. Washington State coach Jake Dickert said his team is not executing well. But Dickert is not giving up on the season. The Cougars have four winnable games left, Dickert said. After a scoreless first quarter, Washington State scored on a 29-yard touchdown pass from Ward to De'Zhaun Stribling early in the second quarter. Ward completed his first 12 passes. Utah replied with a 65-yard drive that ended when Ja'Quinden Jackson plowed over from the 6. Utah was forced to punt late in the second quarter, but the ball hit receiver Robert Ferrel in the leg and was recovered by the Utes at the Washington State 25. Jaylon Glover drove in from the 1 with 20 seconds left in the half to give Utah a 14-7 lead. Dalton Kincaid caught a 5-yard touchdown pass from Barnes late in the third quarter to lift Utah to a 21-7 lead. Washington State replied immediately, with Ward running 7 yards up the middle early in the fourth to cut Utah's lead to 21-14. Jackson fumbled midway through the fourth and the ball was recovered by Washington State's Tanner Moku deep in Utah territory. Dean Janikowski kicked a 42-yard field goal to cut Utah's lead to 21-17 with less than five minutes left in the game. But Utah was able to run out the clock. GOOD DEFENSE Despite four losses, Washington State has the best defense in the Pac-12, allowing just over 20 points per game. WHERE'S THE RUSH Washington State, which averages less than 90 rushing yards per game, was limited to 42 rushing yards Thursday night. The Cougars mustered only 264 yards of total offense, and Ward was sacked four times. THE TAKEAWAY Utah is the defending Pac-12 champion and needed a victory to stay in range of Oregon, UCLA and Southern California for a berth in the league title game. Washington State is seeking to qualify for a bowl game.

WASHINGTON STATE AT STANFORD

Nov. 5, 2022 • Stanford Stadium • Att.: 26,515 • TV: Pac-12 Networks

STANFORD, Calif. – Cameron Ward threw two touchdown passes and ran for a third, Nakia Watson rushed for 166 yards and a score and Washington State snapped a three-game losing streak with a 52-14 victory against Stanford on Saturday. The Cougars (5-4, 2-4 Pac-12) scored touchdowns on their first three possessions and then put the game away with two more TDs in the final 2:09 of the first half. Jaden Hicks also returned a fumble 17 yards for a score in the second quarter as Washington State used four takeaways and 306 yards rushing to get over the frustration of the losing streak. Ward threw for 176 yards with a 7-yard TD pass to Anderson Grover and a 9-yarder to Donovan Ollie on fourth-and-3. Ward also had a 15-yard TD run. Tanner McKee threw for 236 yards and backup QB Ashton Daniels ran for two scores but Stanford (3-6, 1-6) kept giving the ball away and lost for the sixth straight time to the Cougars. Watson set the tone for Washington State in his return from an injury, rushing for 65 yards on the second play from scrimmage to set up Leyton Smithson's 3-yard TD run and then scoring on a 41-yard run on the Cougars final play of the half following a fumble by Benjamin Yurosek that made it 42-7. The Cardinal lost six of their first seven conference games for the first time since 2006 - the year before Jim Harbaugh arrived on The Farm to turn Stanford into a contender. But after a long run of success under Harbaugh and Shaw, things have turned in recent years and Stanford hasn't won more than four games in a season since going 9-4 in 2018. THE TAKEAWAY Washington State: After being held to 41 points during a three-game skid, the Cougars exceeded that total in the first half against the Cardinal. Now all they need is one win against Arizona State, Arizona or Washington to become bowl eligible for the seventh straight non-pandemic season. Stanford: The Cardinal were completely overmatched in this game. They trailed 21-0 before generating a first down, lost four fumbles in the first half and looked disorganized. Stanford was down its top three running backs for the game. The Cardinal had to rely on converted safety Mitch Leigber at times, as well as using Daniels as a running option.

ARIZONA STATE AT WASHINGTON STATE

Nov. 12, 2022 • Gesa Field • Att.: 24,039 • TV: Pac-12 Networks

PULLMAN, Wash. – Nakia Watson ran for 116 yards and three touchdowns as Washington State beat Arizona State 28-18 on Saturday to qualify for a bowl game for the seventh time in the past eight seasons. Cameron Ward completed 22 of 37 passes for 219 yards for Washington State (6-4, 3-4 Pac-12), whose defense came in leading the conference in fewest points allowed per game at 20 and managed to stifle the Sun Devils until late in the contest. Watson rushed for a career-high 166 yards last weekend in WSU's 52-14 win at Stanford. Washington State has won two straight since enduring a three-game losing streak midseason. Emory Jones relieved Trenton Bourguet at quarterback in the first half and completed 15 of 23 passes for 186 yards and two touchdowns for Arizona State (3-7, 2-5), which was playing in chilly and foggy Pullman for the first time since 2015. Kazavian Valladay rushed for 134 yards and a touchdown for the Sun Devils. Washington State scored first, on a 2-yard run up the middle by Watson, midway through the first quarter. Washington State's Leyton Smithson caught a 2-yard touchdown pass from Ward on their next series, but the conversion kick was blocked and the Cougars led 13-0. Watson had a 20-yard run and a 35-yard pass reception on the drive. Washington State drove to the ASU 2 on its next possession, but Ward's pass on fourth down was broken up by Ed Woods and the Cougars turned the ball over on downs. Arizona State punted on its first four drives and its fifth ended when Bourguet was intercepted by Chau Smith-Wade, who returned the ball to the 4-yard line. Watson bulled over for a touchdown and Smithson caught the conversion pass to give Washington State a 21-0 lead. Jones replaced Bourguet on the next drive, but the Sun Devils punted again. Watson scored his third touchdown of the first half on a 2-yard run on Washington State's next drive, and the Cougars led 28-0 at halftime. The Cougars did not score in the second half. Arizona State got on the scoreboard when Jalin Conyers caught a short pass from Jones and ran for a 47-yard touchdown in the closing seconds of the third quarter. The conversion pass failed and Washington State led 28-6. Valladay added a touchdown run late in the fourth. Jones threw a touchdown pass to Elijah Badger with less than a minute left in the game, but the conversion pass failed. Arizona State played without injured linebacker Kyle Soelle, who is the team's leading tackler. THE TAKEAWAY A second consecutive victory allowed the Cougars to become bowl-eligible. Arizona State's post-season hopes were extinguished.

WASHINGTON STATE AT ARIZONA

Nov. 19, 2022 • Arizona Stadium • Att.: 40,717 • TV: Pac-12 Networks

TUCSON, Ariz. — Nakia Watson scored two touchdowns and Washington State intercepted former quarterback Jayden de Laura four times in a 31-20 Pac-12 road victory over Arizona on Saturday. Watson scored on a 4-yard pass from Cameron Ward in the first quarter and on a 2-yard run in the second, giving him six scores in the past three games. He finished with 86 all-purpose yards for the Cougars (7-4, 4-4 Pac-12). "I think he's been everything," WSU coach Jake Dickert said of Watson, who since missing two games due to injury has rushed for 338 yards in the past three games. "He hasn't quite been 100% but he's gutting it out out there, he's giving this team everything he's got." De Laura, who transferred from WSU in January, was 28 of 46 for 357 yards with a rushing and passing TD. He was the 2021 Pac-12 Offensive Freshman of the Year with the Cougars and threw four TD passes against Arizona (4-7, 2-6) last November. Ward was 25 of 36 for 193 yards and a TD and ran for a season-high 59 yards including a 17-yard TD. He entered the game with eight rushing yards all season. WSU led 21-6 at the half and extended that lead by picking off de Laura on three consecutive possessions. Sam Lockett III returned an interception to the Arizona 19, setting up Dean Janikowski's 23-yard field goal with 4:45 left in the third quarter, and Derrick Langford Jr. picked off de Laura and returned it 35 yards for the TD and a 31-6 lead 36 seconds later. Lockett got his second pick with 1:13 left in the third, diving for an overthrow at the WSU 4. The Cougars went up 7-0 less than four minutes into the game on Watson's TD catch, then made it 14-0 midway through the second quarter on a 17-yard Ward keeper. After Arizona cut the deficit to 18 on a 38-yard Tyler Loop field goal, WSU made it 21-3 on a 2-yard Watson TD run. The Wildcats made it a two-score game at the break with a 47-yard Loop field goal. Arizona failed to score in the first quarter for the first time in 2022, going without a TD in the first half for the first time since last season's finale. Both its TDs came in the fourth quarter, including a 47-yard scoring catch by Dorian Singer, who had nine receptions for 176 yards. Singer and Jacob Cowing (six catches, 37 yards) both topped 1,000 for the season, the first time in Arizona history the Wildcats have produced multiple 1,000-yard receivers in the same year. THE TAKEAWAY Washington State: Running backs coach Mark Ataia wore Virginia gear on the sidelines to honor the victims of the tragic shooting involving that killed three Cavaliers players and injured another last Sunday. Ataia, who coached at Virginia from 2016-21, was one of 10 coaches across college football on Saturday honoring their former team. Arizona: The Wildcats failed to gain bowl eligibility for the fifth consecutive season, their longest stretch without a bowl appearance since missing nine years in a row from 1999-2007.

NO. 12 WASHINGTON AT WASHINGTON STATE

Nov. 26, 2022 • Gesa Field • Att.: 33,152 • TV: ESPN

PULLMAN, Wash. — Michael Penix Jr. threw for 484 yards and had five total touchdowns and No. 12 Washington reclaimed the Apple Cup with a wild 51-33 victory over Washington State on Saturday night. A year after the Huskies watched the Cougars celebrate snapping a seven-game losing streak on the turf of Husky Stadium, Washington kept alive its hopes for a New Year's Six bowl game thanks to its standout quarterback and a handful of defensive stops in the second half. The 84 combined points were the most in the 114 matchups between the rivals. Washington (10-2, 7-2 Pac-12, No. 13 CFP) outscored the Cougars (7-5, 4-5) 23-6 in the second half after a dizzying first half that featured 55 combined points, 630 combined yards of offense and a 28-27 lead for the Huskies at the break. Rome Oduanze had a 5-yard touchdown run in the opening moments of the fourth quarter. Peyton Henry kicked a 20-yard field goal with 5:02 left, and Wayne Taulapapa provided the caper with a 40-yard TD run with 1:28 left. The Huskies finished with 702 yards of offense against a Washington State defense that led the Pac-12 in scoring defense at under 20 points per game. If not for two second-half turnovers by the Huskies, the margin of victory could have been much larger. Washington's victory also sent Utah to the Pac-12 championship game as the opponent for Southern California next week in Las Vegas. Cameron Ward threw for 322 yards and two touchdowns for Washington State, but the Cougars failed to score on five of their six offensive possessions in the second half. Oduanze had five catches 157 yards and a touchdown to go along with his TD run and Jalen McMillan caught six passes for 150 yards, including a 75-yard touchdown reception on the final play of the second half that gave the Huskies a 35-27 lead. Washington has won eight of nine in the series and the past four games played in Pullman. Washington State was seeking consecutive Apple Cup victories for the first time since 2007-08. Penix was 25 of 43 passing and nearly topped 500 yards for the second time this season. He threw for 242 yards as part of a first half that featured 55 combined points, seven lead changes, 630 total yards. Penix threw for two touchdowns and ran for two more in the first half, one a 30-yard run on what turned out to be a double lateral. Penix connected with Ja'Lynn Polk on a 26-yard TD and a 47-yard TD to Oduanze on a double move. Washington State also had some tricks. Punter Nick Haberer hit linebacker Daiyan Henley on a 36-yard pass that set up Washington State's first TD. It was one of four fourth-down conversions for the Cougars and Ward capped that drive with a 14-yard touchdown run. Ward added touchdown passes of 34 yards to Robert Ferrel on fourth-and-10, and a 15-yard TD pass to Nakia Watson. Dean Janikowski's second field goal on the final play of the half pulled the Cougars within 28-27 at the break. THE TAKEAWAY Washington: Oduanze and McMillan both went over 1,000 yards receiving for the season. It's the first time in school history the Huskies have had two 1,000-yard receivers in the same season. Washington State: The Cougars had the top scoring defense in the conference entering the game giving up 19.8 points per game. But there were no answers slowing down the Huskies, especially on third down where Washington converted 11 of 13 attempts.

WASHINGTON STATE VS. FRESNO STATE

Dec. 17, 2022 • SoFi Stadium • Att.: 32,405 • TV: ABC

LOS ANGELES — Jordan Mims rushed for a career-high 205 yards and two scores, Jake Haener threw two TD passes and Fresno State completed the biggest in-season turnaround in Football Bowl Subdivision history with a 29-6 victory over Washington State in the LA Bowl on Saturday. Fresno State - which won the Mountain West Conference title - is the first team to get to 10 wins after dropping four of the first five. The Bulldogs (10-4) were 1-4 in early October before winning their final nine games. Mims accounted for 232 all-purpose yards and out-gained Washington State, which had 182 offensive yards. Both of Mims' touchdowns were on direct snaps out of the Wildcat formation. Early in the second quarter, the senior went 4 yards around left end to give the Bulldogs a 14-0 advantage. In the fourth quarter, he carried it 2 yards up the middle to make it 29-6. Haener completed 24 of 36 passes for 284 yards in his final game for Fresno State. The senior connected with Zane Pope on a 22-yard touchdown to complete the Bulldogs' opening possession. He added an 11-yard score to Nikko Remigio late in the third quarter to extend the lead to 22-6. Cameron Ward was 22 of 32 for 137 yards for Washington State (7-6). Nakia Watson rushed for 33 yards and had the Cougars only touchdown in the third quarter, when he scored from 1 yard to bring Washington State within 16-6. GETTING DEFENSIVE Fresno State made it 16-0 on Washington State's ensuing possession with a safety. On third-and-14 from the Cougars' 3-yard line, Ward was pressured by Bulldogs' defensive lineman Leonard Payne Jr. and stepped on the end line in the back of the end zone. It was the second time in the last three games the Bulldogs have scored on a safety. THE TAKEAWAY Fresno State: The Bulldogs have won four straight bowl games and have their second consecutive season with double-digit victories. It also completes a great first year for Jeff Tedford, who is in his second stint at Fresno State after Kalen DeBoer left for Washington. Washington State: The Cougars have dropped their last three bowl games but were short-handed after both coordinators left for other positions. Washington State also was impacted at wide receiver and linebacker with players opting out of the game or putting their name in the transfer portal.

1916 ROSE BOWL

WSU 14, BROWN 0

January 1, 1916, Pasadena, Calif. — A crowd of 10,000 was on hand at the Pasadena Rose Bowl January 1 to watch as undefeated Washington State took on eastern power Brown University in the first of the continuous Rose Bowls. WSU used third and fourth quarter touchdown runs by Ralph Boone and Carl Dietz to shutout the Bruins 14-0. Brown entered the game a two-to-one favorite, despite a modest 5-3-1 record. The Bruins' 3-0 win over Yale was the key accomplishment that earned the Rhode Island team an invitation to play in the Rose Bowl. A cold spell, followed by a heavy rain and some snow for three days prior to the game, turned the playing field into a sea of mud that slowed both teams. Brown came close to scoring twice in the first half, but each time Washington State's defense, which had allowed just one field goal and one touchdown all season, rose to the task and halted the Bruins short of the goal line, once at the four yard line. Bruin star Fritz Pollard gained just 47 yards in 13 carries. Pollard later became the first black named to a Walter Camp All-America team and was the first black head coach in the National Football League. In the second half WSU's size advantage began to pay off as the Cougars took command, scoring once in each quarter. WSU's preparation for the game had been, to say the least, odd. Coach William "Lone Star" Dietz, out of the Carlisle Indian School, and his Cougar squad served as extras in the football film "Tom Brown of Harvard" each morning, then practiced for the bowl game during the afternoon. Each WSU player earned $100 for the 14 mornings of movie work. During practice sessions, Dietz appeared in his "classic" coaching attire: a silk hat, Prince Albert cutaway coat, striped pants, yellow gloves, and a walking stick. Originally known as the Pasadena Tournament of Roses East-West game (it was 1923 when the real Rose Bowl facility was completed that the name changed), the WSU-Brown game was played at Tournament Park.

1931 ROSE BOWL

ALABAMA 24, WSU 0

January 1, 1931, Pasadena, Calif. - The Alabama Crimson Tide used a second-quarter blitz, including touchdown runs of one and 43 yards by quarterback Monk Campbell, to post a 24-0 win over previously undefeated Washington State in the 17th Rose Bowl game, viewed by 65,000 fans. Alabama's coach was Wallace Wade, who had been a member of the Brown University team that lost to WSU in the 1916 Rose Bowl. Wade, during his career, coached in five Rose Bowls.

"Babe" Hollingbery's fifth Cougar team went a perfect 9-0-0 to earn a Rose Bowl berth in 1930, including a 6-0 mark during the Pacific Coast Conference schedule. Included in the list of Cougar victims were California 16-0, USC 7-6, Washington 3-0 and Villanova 13-0. Two members of the WSU team later earned recognition in the College Football Hall of Fame, Mel Hein and Glen "Turk" Edwards.

1981 HOLIDAY BOWL

#14 BYU 38, #20 WSU 36

December 18, 1981, San Diego - Three games in one was more than the 52,000-plus fans at San Diego's Jack Murphy Stadium paid for, but three games is what they saw as the Brigham Young Cougars held on to defeat the Washington State Cougars 38-36. The BYU squad won the first game, a 31-minute affair that generated a 31-7 lead for the team from Provo. The next 25 minutes just as convincingly belonged to WSU 29-7. In the end, however, the game belonged to BYU as much for defense as anything. They stopped the Pullman team with just over three minutes to play by forcing a punt, then ran out the clock to preserve the win. Jim McMahon, in his last collegiate game, completed 27 of 43 passes for 342 yards and three touchdowns. More importantly, he did not throw an interception. The WSU Cougars used the running of Don LaBomme and quarterback

Ricky Turner to baffle the BYU team, especially in the second half. Turner gained 92 yards in 12 carries and scored twice, while LaBomme added 79 yards in 14 carries and scored once. Robert Williams and Mike Martin also scored for the Cougars. WSU's failure on a two-point conversion late in the third quarter, an interception BYU's Ron Holmoe returned 35 yards for a touchdown on the third play of the third quarter, and a key sack of Casper on WSU's last possession loomed big in a game that had numerous turning points.

1988 ALOHA BOWL

#18 WSU 24, #14 HOUSTON 22

December 25, 1988, Honolulu - Washington State scored 24 second-quarter points and forced a last-second Houston turnover in notching a 24-22 win over the Texan Cougars Christmas Day. The bowl appearance was WSU's second of the 1980s and evened the Cougars bowl record to 2-2. In a close game there are many heroes, but for WSU, none stood out more than senior Victor Wood. He picked up a fumble early in the second quarter and zipped five yards for a touchdown that put his Cougars ahead 7-3. On WSU's next possession, Wood caught a 15-yard scoring pass from Timm Rosenbach to put WSU up 14-3 and well on its way to a bowl victory viewed by a national ABC-TV audience. Wood's heroics were catching as WSU added a Jason Hanson 33-yard field goal and another touchdown, this one by Rosenbach, before halftime to put Washington State in command 24-9. WSU limited the Texas visitors to just five first half firstdowns, 46 yards rushing, and 77 yards passing before intermission. The Cougars picked off two Houston passes, one each by Shawn Landrum and Vernon Todd. In the end, however, it was Tuineau Alipate's hard hit that forced a Houston fumble recovered by Artie Holmes at the WSU five yard line. James Dixon was the recipient of Alipate's jarring tackle after catching a David Dacus pass over the middle that appeared for a moment to set up a potential game-winning score by Houston. The Cougars then controlled the ball for the final 2:44, with a key six-yard Rosenbach to Tim Stallworth pass giving WSU the much-needed first down just before the game ended.

1992 COPPER BOWL

#18 WSU 31, UTAH 28

December 29, 1992, Tucson, Ariz. - Perhaps no college bowl game following the 1992 gridiron season was more offensive minded than the Copper Bowl matchup between WSU and Utah, but after all the running and passing that accounted for more than 1,100 yards, the deciding play was a 22-yard field goal by WSU's Aaron Price. The Cougars scored 21 unanswered points in the first quarter and one additional score just before halftime for a 28-14 lead. WSU then held on until Price gave them their final lead with 5:08 to play. Even then, they had to watch anxiously as Chris Yergensen's 20-yard chip shot sailed wildly to the left with 3:18 remaining. Though the 40,000-plus fans left the stadium talking about the offensive plays that stood out, it was WSU's defense in the fourth quarter that made this win possible. The Utes scored twice in the second quarter and added two more scores to pull even with a quarter to play. Both teams then turned to their defenses. The key play came with 6:29 to play when Utah's Frank Dolce avoided a strong WSU rush and hooked up with Henry Lusk on a short sideline pass. John Rushing then stripped Lusk of the ball and Singor Mobley scooped it up at the Utah 36 yard line. Fifteen yards later, at the Utah 21, Mobley was dragged down, setting up the Cougars with great field position. Drew Bledsoe immediately drove the Cougars to the Utah five yard line before turning the scoring chores over to Price. Like he did the closing seconds of WSU's 23-20 win over Arizona in the same stadium early in the season, Price came through with the kick. Bledsoe completed 30 of 46 passes for a school record 476 yards. Phillip Bobo caught TD passes of 87 (equalling a school record) and 48 yards, and Shaumbe Wright-Fair picked up 123 yards rushing and scored on a pair of three-yard line smashes.

1994 ALAMO BOWL

#24 WSU 10, BAYLOR 3

December 31, 1994, San Antonio - The Washington State offense scored on the opening drive of the game and on the last play of the second quarter to provide all the points the Cougar defense needed as WSU held off Baylor's late challenge in a 10-3 win at the second annual Builders Square Alamo Bowl before a crowd of 44,106. Despite some anxious moments in the closing seconds of the game, the Cougar defense made those 10 points stand up by limiting the record-setting Bear offense to eight first downs, 151 yards in total offense and just one field goal. The Cougars did something against Baylor they had not done all season, take the opening kickoff and drive the length of the field for a touchdown. The drive totaled 91 yards, equalling the longest scoring drive of the season, and ended when Kevin Hicks busted through the left side of the line from one yard out to put WSU on top 7-0. The score came six minutes, 32 seconds after the kickoff. WSU's offense provided three more points just before halftime to give the Cougs a 10-0 lead at intermission. Taking the ball after Baylor's Jarvis VanDyke missed his second field goal attempt of the first half, WSU drove from its own 30 yard line to the Baylor 20 yard line, where Tony Truant banged home a 37-yard field goal with two seconds left in the first half. A sideline pass to Jay Dumas for a key first down, then another similar pass to Albert Kennedy put the ball in perfect position for Truant. Davis, named the game's most valuable offensive player, hit six of eight passes on the drive. Davis, who completed 27 of 35 passes for 286 yards, gave Cougar fans a few anxious minutes in the third quarter when he took a hard blow to the back while scrambling out of the pocket. He was able to return one play later and finished the game. Defensively WSU was especially tough in the first half. Baylor came into the game averaging nearly 33 points per game and 382.4 yards per contest. In the first half WSU's defense, led by the game's most valuable defensive player, Ron Childs, limited the Bears to just 41 net yards, 24 rushing and 17 passing. Childs had 10 tackles in the game, including eight solo, of which two were for negative yardage. Only on its last possession did Baylor come close to the WSU endzone, where Todd Jensen, a senior who backed up John Rushing all year, picked off a Jeff Watson pass to halt any Baylor hope of scoring. The bowl victory was WSU's second in the last three years and third in seven years. Joining Childs defensively were Chris Hayes with seven tackles, Mark Fields with six and Chad Eaton with five.

1998 ROSE BOWL

#1 MICHIGAN 21, #8 WSU 16

January 1, 1998, Pasadena, Calif. - The Washington State Cougars, making their first Rose Bowl appearance in 67 years, pushed national champion and number one ranked Michigan to the last play of the game before falling to the Wolverines 21-16 before 101,219 fans and a world-wide television audience. The victory left Michigan a perfect 13-0 for the season, bumping the Cougars to a 10-2 record. After Michigan thwarted two WSU drives to start the game, the Cougar defense forced a Wolverine punt that would set up WSU's first scoring drive. The Cougs took over on the Michigan 47-yard-line with 6:26 to play in the first quarter. Ryan Leaf completed two passes during the drive, including a 15-yard touchdown toss to Kevin McKenzie with 3:17 left in the first quarter. Rian Lindell's point-after gave WSU the early 7-0 advantage. WSU came close to taking a 14-point lead, but Heisman Trophy winner Charles Woodson halted a WSU drive in the Michigan endzone when he intercepted a Leaf pass from the 12 yard line. The Wolverine's answering scoring drive began from their own 34-yard-line at the 8:04 mark in the second quarter and ended with a 58-yard pass from Bob Griese to Tai Streets that completed the first half scoring. Early in the second half, WSU took over 99 yards from the endzone after Michigan's Jason Vinson dropped a perfect punt just outside the endzone. Shawn Tims put the finishing touches on WSU's 99 yard drive in nine plays, taking a reverse handoff the final 14 yards. Leaf hit four of five passes in the drive that amassed 73 yards. Lindell's PAT attempt was blocked by Michigan's James Hall, leaving the WSU advantage at 13-7. The Wolverines responded immediately, moving the ball on their next possession to their 39 yard-line to set up another Griese-to-Streets touchdown combination, this time 58 yards. Baker's point-after gave Michigan their first lead, 14-13 with 6:07 left in the third quarter. Michigan then padded their lead with a 14-play, 77-yard drive that ended in Griese's third touchdown pass of the game, a 23-yarder to Jerame Tuman. Baker's extra-point kick increased the Michigan advantage to 21-13 with 11:21 to play. Washington State responded immediately with an eight-play, 49-yard drive that set up a 48-yard field goal by Lindell, cutting Michigan's lead to five points, 21-16 with 7:25 remaining. The Wolverines then put together a 51-yard drive that consumed almost seven minutes off the game clock. When Jay Feely's pooch punt rolled dead at the WSU seven-yard-line, the Cougars' victory hopes were 93 yards and 29 seconds away. After two incomplete passes, the Cougars faced third-and-10 with only 16 seconds left. Leaf then found Nian Taylor along the sideline for a gain of 46, to the Michigan 47-yard-line. After a delay of game penalty, Leaf hit Love Jefferson at the Michigan 25 and the Coug tight end lateraled to a streaking Jason Clayton, who managed nine more yards before being brought down in bounds at Michigan's 16 yard line with 0:02 on the game clock. Out of timeouts, WSU was forced to try and spike the ball on first-down, but officials ruled that the final two seconds slipped away before the ball was effectively downed, thus preventing WSU's one final shot at a major upset.

2003 ROSE BOWL

#8 OKLAHOMA 34, #7 WSU 14

January 1, 2003, Pasadena, Calif. – Oklahoma's vaunted defense stifled Washington State's high-flying passing attack and captured the 89th Rose Bowl Game 34-14 in front of 86,848 fans New Year's Day. The Sooners broke the game open with a pair of touchdowns inside the two-minute mark of the first half. The first came on a 12-yard touchdown pass from Nate Hybl, the game's most valuable player. Antonio Perkins extended OU's lead to 17-0 with a 51-yard punt return just :42 seconds later. Hybl connected on 19 of 29 passes for 240 yards and two touchdowns. Sooner running back Quentin Griffin carried the ball 30 times for 144 yards. WSU quarterback Jason Gesser finished his career by completing 17 of 34 passes for 240 yards and a touchdown. Sammy Moore provided the game's final highlight, returning an OU kick 89 yards for a score with just 1:15 remaining. Linebacker Teddy Lehman led the Big XII Champions with six tackles, including two sacks, while free safety Erik Coleman recorded 10 tackles and recovered a fumble for the Cougars.

2003 HOLIDAY BOWL

#15 WSU 28, #5 TEXAS 20

December 30, 2003, San Diego, Calif. – Washington State reached the 10-win plateau for the third time in as many seasons with a 28-20 comeback victory over Texas in the Pacific Life Holiday Bowl. Facing a 10-7 halftime deficit, the Cougars rallied to score three touchdowns in the third quarter and take a 26-10 lead into the final stanza. The second half fireworks began with a 54-yard touchdown pass from Matt Kegel to Sammy Moore with just over nine minutes left in the third. WSU used a trick play to get in the end zone once again four minutes later. Kegel lined up under center, but instead of taking the snap, ran in motion to the right sideline, leaving running back Jonathan Smith alone in the backfield. Smith fumbled the snap, but recovered and ran 12 yards for a touchdown. Two Texas possessions later, the WSU defense continued the onslaught when Jason David recovered a fumble and took it 18 yards for the Cougs' final touchdown of the game. Washington State's defense forced a fourth quarter safety to push its total to 28. Moore earned most valuable offensive player honors after converting both of his catches for touchdowns and setting up another with a 51-yard punt return. Sophomore Kyle Basler was named the game's most valuable defensive player after pinning the Longhorns inside their own five on four occasions.

2013 NEW MEXICO BOWL

COLORADO STATE 48, WSU 45

December 22, 2013, ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - With less than two minutes to play and Colorado State down by eight points, Shaquill Barrett knew the Rams needed the ball back quickly to finish an improbable comeback against Washington State. Once down by 22 points in the New Mexico Bowl, the Rams got their chance when Cougars running back Jeremiah Laufasa came barreling toward Barrett. That fumble, at the Cougars 33, set up Kapri Bibbs' 1-yard run score and Donnell Alexander's two-point conversion run that tied it at 45 with 33 seconds left. Then, Washington State's Teondray Caldwell fumbled a kickoff return at the 24, setting up Jared Roberts' 41-yard field goal with 3 seconds left that gave Colorado State a 48-45 victory. It was a quarterback shootout that saw close to 800 passing yards combined and a game largely dominated by Washington State until the last 2 minutes. And Colorado State did not have a lead the entire game until that winning field goal. Garrett Grayson threw for 369 yards and Bibbs ran for 169 yards and three touchdowns for Colorado State (8-6). The Rams overcame three early turnovers. Meanwhile, Washington State's Connor Halliday threw touchdown passes to six receivers and finished with 410 yards for Washington State (6-7). Those six touchdown passes tied West Virginia's Geno Smith and Iowa's Chuck Long for an NCAA bowl record. After the first touchdown pass, Halliday got into a shouting match with a Colorado State coach when Halliday ran into the Rams' sideline. That exchange created a social media buzz and McElwain vowed to look into it. Washington State scored 35 points in the first half, but had only 10 in the second.

WSU 20, MIAMI 14

EL PASO, Texas - Luke Falk threw two touchdown passes to lead Washington State to a 20-14 victory over Miami on Saturday in the snowy Sun Bowl. Erik Powell added field goals of 30 and 25 yards to help the Cougars (9-4) win a bowl game for the first time since the 2003 Holiday Bowl. Miami (8-5) lost its sixth consecutive bowl game. Washington State led 20-7 at the half and looked in total control, limiting Miami to three first downs over the second and third quarters. The Hurricanes rallied in a blizzard in the fourth. Braxton Berrios' 60-yard end-around run set up Mark Walton's 5-yard scoring run that cut it to 20-14 with 13:10 left. The Cougars, the top passing team in the nation during the regular season, were shut out in the second half, leaving it to their defense to wrap up the victory. Miami had a 5-yard touchdown pass from Brad Kaaya to Stacy Coley called back on a penalty with 5:14 to play. Two players later, Washington State's Marcellus Pippins recovered Walton's fumble at the 4. After a Cougars punt, the Hurricanes were at the Washington State 28, but an end-over-end halfback pass from Joe Yearby was easily intercepted by Shalom Luani with 2:58 to play to seal it for Washington State. Falk, the game's MVP, was 29 of 53 for 295 yards and no interceptions. He threw touchdown passes of 31 yards to running back Jamal Morrow and 25 yards to receiver Gabe Marks. The scoring play to Morrow, during which he turned up the right sideline and carried two defenders into the end zone, gave Washington State a 7-0 lead. Miami tied it at 7 on a 4-yard pass from Brad Kaaya to Coley. The first quarter ended 7-7, but the Cougars ran off 13 straight points in the second. Kaaya was 17 of 30 for 219 yards with one interception. He appeared to give the Hurricanes a 14-7 lead in the second quarter when he connected in the end zone with receiver Rashawn Scott, but the ball came out of Scott's hands and was intercepted by Peyton Pelluer. One of the keys for the Cougars was winning the turnover battle, 3-1. Washington State fumbled in the second quarter, but the defense forced a three-and-out. On the next series, the Cougars used a 14-play drive to get Powell's first field goal and a 10-7 lead. Washington State made it 17-7 on Falk's TD pass to Marks, and Powell made it 20-7.

2016 HOLIDAY BOWL

MINNESOTA 17, WSU 12

SAN DIEGO - Shannon Brooks caught a tipped pass from Mitch Leidner for a 13-yard, go-ahead touchdown in the third quarter and the Minnesota Golden Gophers, beset by turmoil after 10 players were suspended after a sexual assault investigation, upset Luke Falk and the Washington State Cougars 17-12 in the Holiday Bowl on Tuesday night. It was one of the few exciting plays in an otherwise pedestrian edition of what traditionally has been one of the country's most exciting bowl games. WSU cornerback Marcellus Pippins reached up with his right hand and deflected Leidner's pass in the end zone but it went right to Brooks for the TD and a 10-6 lead. That capped an 84-yard, 10-play drive on Minnesota's first possession of the second half. The Golden Gophers (9-4) were looking to regroup after backing down from a threat to skip the game if 10 teammates suspended after a sexual assault investigation weren't reinstated. Their boycott lasted less than 36 hours, with university leadership never blinking. The players backed down amid pressure from many who read details of the allegations. WSU (8-5) ended on a three-game losing streak and was held to its lowest point total of the season. The Cougars had scored more than 50 points four times this season, a school record. The Golden Gophers frustrated Falk most of the game, holding him to 264 yards - 86 below his average - on 30-of-51 passing. Falk didn't crack 200 yards until the final minutes, when he led a drive capped by an 8-yard TD pass to Kyle Sweet. After three tries due to Minnesota penalties, the conversion attempt failed. Minnesota then recovered an onside kick. Falk came in having completed 71 percent of his passes in throwing for 4,204 yards and 37 touchdowns. The Cougars were ranked second in the nation in passing. Falk was intercepted by Adekunle Ayinde on fourth down with 3:05 left. That set up Rodney Smith's 9-yard TD run with 2:06 left for a 17-6 lead. WSU lead 6-3 after a lackluster first half that included just three field goals. The Cougars couldn't get their vaunted Air Raid offense going and crossed the 50 just twice, getting field goals of 26 and 41 yards by Erik Powell. Powell's second field goal was set up when Nnamdi Oguayo hit Leidner and forced a fumble that Isaac Dotson recovered at the Golden Gophers' 38. Minnesota got a 43-yard field goal by Emmitt Carpenter in the second quarter.

2017 HOLIDAY BOWL

NO. 18 MICHIGAN STATE 42, NO. 21 WSU 17

SAN DIEGO - Brian Lewerke threw for 213 yards and three touchdowns, and LJ Scott ran for 110 yards and two scores for No. 18 Michigan State, which took advantage of Luke Falk's absence to rout No. 21 Washington State 42-17 in the Holiday Bowl. Lewerke also rushed for 73 yards for Michigan State (10-3), which rebounded from a dismal 3-9 record last year to reach double digits in wins for the eighth time in program history. Falk, who was photographed earlier in the week with a cast on his left wrist, went through warmups but came out in street clothes at game time. He was replaced by redshirt sophomore Tyler Hilinski, who made his first start and eighth appearance of the season. It's unclear precisely when Falk injured the wrist on his non-throwing hand, but he had issues with it throughout the season. Coach Mike Leach refused to give specifics during the week. Hilinski led WSU (9-4) to a 45-yard field goal by Erik Powell on the Cougars' second drive, but the Cougars were overpowered by the Spartans. Lewerke threw the first of two TD passes to Cody White, a 7-yarder midway through the second quarter, when he was flushed to the left but found the receiver in the back of the end zone. On MSU's next possession, Lewerke took the snap and glanced at his running back, which froze the secondary and allowed Felton Davis III to get wide open for a 49-yard scoring pass. Scott scored on a 3-yard run to give the Spartans a 21-3 halftime time. Early in the third, Lewerke rolled left and had his pass tipped, but a sliding White caught it for a 7-yard touchdown. Lewerke, who finished 13 of 21, was hit hard on a keeper in the third quarter and came out for a few plays. His backup, Damien Terry, scored on a 6-yard keeper to make it 35-3. The Cougars closed the gap when Hilinski threw a 14-yard touchdown pass to Tay Martin late in the third quarter and a 15-yarder to Tay in the fourth quarter. Scott scored on a 28-yard burst up the middle with about six minutes left to play. Hilinski was 39 of 50 for 272 yards and two touchdowns, with one interception. THE TAKEAWAY Washington State: It was the second straight lackluster Holiday Bowl for Leach's Cougars, who lost 17-12 to Minnesota last year. Besides being without Falk, leading receiver Tavares Martin Jr. was kicked off the team after the regular season and third-leading receiver Isaiah Johnson-Mack left the squad. Michigan State: Scott had his third 100-yard game of the season and ninth of his career. Felton had four catches for 118 yards.

2018 ALAMO BOWL

NO. 12 WSU 28, NO. 25 IOWA STATE 26

SAN ANTONIO – Gardner Minshew II and that glorious mustache conjured up a final bit of magic in a grand finale for Washington State. The graduate transfer quarterback whose whiskered upper lip was loved and mimicked by Cougars fans all season, threw two touchdown passes and ran for another score in sending No. 12 Washington State to a 28-26 win over No. 25 Iowa State in the Alamo Bowl. Minshew's passing and scrambling earned the Cougars (11-2) a school record for wins in a season. He threw for 299 yards, none of them bigger than a play made out of desperation when Iowa State had all the momentum. After watching a 21-10 lead dwindle to 21-20 by early in the fourth quarter, the Cougars stripped the ball from Iowa State running back David Montgomery at the Cyclones' 30. Minshew, who had been held in check in the third quarter, escaped a third-down pass rush to flip a last-second shovel pass to Tay Martin that went for 20 yards. The play stunned the Cyclones, and Max Borghi scored on a 10-yard run the next play. It was just another big fourth-quarter moment for the transfer from East Carolina who coach Mike Leach had lured out West with the promise he could lead the nation in passing. Minshew was the nation's leading passer in yards per game this season and won the Johnny Unitas Award as the nation's top senior quarterback in a season the Cougars fell one game short of playing for the Pac-12 championship. Nearly all of his completions this season were more orthodox than the flip to Martin. None were bigger for the season and the legacy it set for the program. "I want to say thank you to these coaches, this university and these fans for taking me in," Minshew said. "So glad to be a part of this," he said. "One thing I've always been told is to leave a place better than we found it. This place could be really special." The Cyclones did a good job in bottling him up for much of the game. Iowa State's defense held Washington State 10 points and 135 yards below their season averages and two of the Cougars' touchdowns came on short drives after turnovers. But after Minshew found a way to get Washington State in the end zone, the Cougars' defense made the one play it had to at the end. Iowa State's last chance came after quarterback Brock Purdy scored from a yard out with 4:02 left. The Cyclones went for two, but a pass to Montgomery was stopped well short of the goal line after a false-start penalty pushed the line of scrimmage back to the 8. Iowa State had seven false start penalties and had two players ejected for targeting hits on Minshew. Purdy passed for 315 yards and Cyclones receiver Hakeem Butler caught nine passes for 192 yards, six shy of the Alamo Bowl record. Montgomery rushed for 124 yards. The Cyclones (8-5) had rallied from a 1-3 start to finish third in the Big 12, the program's best conference finish in 40 years. THE TAKEAWAY Washington State: Minshew completed 9 of 13 passes in the fourth quarter for 78 yards. After Iowa State's final touchdown, he completed three passes, two of them converting third downs, as the Cougars ran out the clock. Iowa State: Turnovers and targeting calls were critical. Purdy threw two first-quarter interceptions and Montgomery's fumble was a game-changer. Iowa State had two key defenders ejected in the second quarter for targeting hits to Minshew. TOUCH-DOWN TAUNTING Washington State cornerback Marcus Strong had a long touchdown interception return wiped out in the first quarter when he was flagged for taunting on his way into the endzone. Strong stepped in front of a pass intended for Butler and had a clear path to the goal line. He was penalized because he held the ball out and looked back as Purdy made a futile dive for his feet. Instead of the score, the Cougars got the ball on the Iowa State 20 and scored two plays later when Minshew connected with Renard Bell.

2019 CHEEZ-IT BOWL

NO. 24 AIR FORCE 31, WSU 21

PHOENIX – Air Force clung to a three-point lead, the clock showing plenty of time left for one of the nation's most prolific offenses. A field goal was not going to be good enough. The Falcons needed a touchdown to leave Washington State no chance. Going for it on fourth down was the only option - and it worked. Kadin Remsburg ran for 178 yards and stretched to the pylon for a 3-yard touchdown on a late fourth down, lifting No. 24 Air Force to a 31-21 victory over Washington State in the Cheez-It Bowl on Friday night. The Falcons (11-2) had their triple option working to near perfection, grinding out 371 yards rushing while setting a Cheez-It Bowl time of possession record of 43:24. Donald Hammond III scored two touchdowns and Air Force carried a 10-point lead into the fourth quarter, yet couldn't shake the high-scoring Cougars. Anthony Gordon, the FBS passing leader, kept Washington State within reach, throwing for 351 yards and three touchdowns. He hit Brandon Arconado on a 13-yard TD to pull Washington State (6-7) within 24-21 late in the fourth quarter, giving the Cougars a shot at the comeback finish. Air Force methodically worked the ball down to Washington State's 4-yard line, but failed to punch the ball into the end zone on three tries. After a timeout, Hammond ran an option left and pitched the ball to Remsburg, who got the edge and reached the ball to the pylon with a defender draping him. The touchdown was upheld on review. The 2018 game was dubbed the Cheez-INT Bowl after TCU and California combined for nine interceptions. A year later, Air Force and Washington State brought philosophical differences to the desert. The Falcons like to stay grounded, running 57 times a game while finishing third in the FBS at 292.5 yards per game. The Cougars love to fly, putting it up 56 times a game to lead the nation with nearly 450 yards a game. Washington State started the Cheez-It Bowl quickly, racing down the field with a series of completions, only to get stuffed by an Air Force goal-line stand. The Falcons' opening drive was a yard-churning, clock-winding grind, covering 98 yards in 20 plays and 12:23. Hammond capped it with a 1-yard TD run. Air Force's next two drives took less time combined than the first, ending in Jake Koehnke's 28-yard field goal and Taven Birdow's 3-yard run after Gordon lost a fumble at Washington State's 23. The Cougars had two more quick-hitting drives to pull within 17-14 at halftime on Gordon's two TD passes. Air Force went right back to the ground to open the second half; 13 plays, 75 yards, capped by Hammond's 7-yard TD run. Washington State had another fourth-down failure, this one at Air Force's 5-yard line, but bounced back quickly with Gordon's TD pass to Arconado. The Cougars just couldn't stop Air Force and Remsburg's diving TD run capped another long scoring drive to seal it. THE TAKEAWAY Air Force won the line of scrimmage and its 11th game of the season, second only to 12-win seasons in 1985 and 1998. Washington State was hurt by the two failed fourth downs and its inability to decipher Air Force's triple option. FOURTH-DOWN DECISIONS Leach has been known as a gambler on fourth downs, often preferring to go for it over punting or kicking field goals. He stuck by his decisions at the Cheez-It Bowl, even though neither worked.

2021 SUN BOWL

CENTRAL MICHIGAN 24, WSU 21

EL PASO, Texas – Lew Nichols III ran for 130 yards and a touchdown, leading late replacement Central Michigan to a 24-21 victory over Washington State in the Sun Bowl on Friday. The Chippewas (9-4) ended a five-game bowl losing streak with their fifth consecutive victory this season. When Boise State opted out of the Arizona Bowl because of COVID-19 issues, Central Michigan switched about 300 miles west from Tucson, Arizona, to the Texas border city of El Paso. Miami skipped the Sun Bowl for COVID-19 reasons as well. Central Michigan stayed in Arizona before bussing to El Paso the day before the game. Washington State (7-6) never could get its offense going in the first half, finishing with just 53 yards and trailing 21-0 at the break. The Cougars dropped to 8-9 all-time in bowls. The Cougars rallied in the second half behind backup quarterback Victor Gabalis, scoring three times to make it close. Gabalis was 12 of 23 passing for 180 yards and two TDs. After a 13-yard scoring toss to Lincoln Victor pulled the Cougars within three points with 3:13 remaining, they had another chance starting at their 14-yard line with 2:41 remaining. Central Michigan stopped Joey Hobert a yard short on a catch on fourth-and-5. Marshall Meeder kicked three field goals for Central Michigan, including a 52-yarder for a 6-0 lead and a 43-yarder for a 10-point lead early in the fourth quarter. THE TAKEAWAY Central Michigan: It was the first victory in a bowl against a Power Five opponent for the Mid-American Conference team. The Chippewas were seven-point underdogs. Washington State: The Cougars were without starting tackles Liam Ryan and Abe Lucas for coach Jake Dickert's first game on the sideline since having the interim tagged removed. Running backs Max Borghi opted out and Deon McIntosh did not play.

2022 JIMMY KIMMEL LA BOWL

FRESNO STATE 29, WSU 6

LOS ANGELES – Jordan Mims rushed for a career-high 205 yards and two scores, Jake Haener threw two TD passes and Fresno State completed the biggest in-season turnaround in Football Bowl Subdivision history with a 29-6 victory over Washington State in the LA Bowl on Saturday. Fresno State - which won the Mountain West Conference title - is the first team to get to 10 wins after dropping four of the first five. The Bulldogs (10-4) were 1-4 in early October before winning their final nine games. Mims accounted for 232 all-purpose yards and outgained Washington State, which had 182 offensive yards. Both of Mims' touchdowns were on direct snaps out of the Wildcat formation. Early in the second quarter, the senior went 4 yards around left end to give the Bulldogs a 14-0 advantage. In the fourth quarter, he carried it 2 yards up the middle to make it 29-6. Haener completed 24 of 36 passes for 284 yards in his final game for Fresno State. The senior connected with Zane Pope on a 22-yard touchdown to complete the Bulldogs' opening possession. He added an 11-yard score to Nikko Remigio late in the third quarter to extend the lead to 22-6. Cameron Ward was 22 of 32 for 137 yards for Washington State (7-6). Nakia Watson rushed for 33 yards and had the Cougars only touchdown in the third quarter, when he scored from 1 yard to bring Washington State within 16-6. GETTING DEFENSIVE Fresno State made it 16-0 on Washington State's ensuing possession with a safety. On third-and-14 from the Cougars' 3-yard line, Ward was pressured by Bulldogs' defensive lineman Leonard Payne Jr. and stepped on the end line in the back of the end zone. It was the second time in the last three games the Bulldogs have scored on a safety. THE TAKEAWAY Fresno State: The Bulldogs have won four straight bowl games and have their second consecutive season with double-digit victories. It also completes a great first year for Jeff Tedford, who is in his second stint at Fresno State after Kalen DeBoer left for Washington. Washington State: The Cougars have dropped their last three bowl games but were short-handed after both coordinators left for other positions. Washington State also was impacted at wide receiver and linebacker with players opting out of the game or putting their name in the transfer portal.

KIRK
SCHULZ*WSU SYSTEM PRESIDENT

Kirk H. Schulz is the 11th president of Washington State University and a tenured professor in the Gene and Linda Voiland School of Chemical Engineering and Bioengineering.

A nationally respected leader in higher education, President Schulz has made great strides in expanding the reach and effectiveness of the WSU system of campuses, Extension offices, and other programs to better serve the State of Washington. Since joining WSU in June 2016, his duties have evolved from operating as the chief executive of the WSU Pullman campus to setting the strategic vision and direction for the entire WSU system, advocating for higher-education policy, engaging in philanthropic priorities, and representing WSU at the state and federal levels.

Under President Schulz's leadership, the university enrolled a record 31,607 students system-wide in 2019, completed its first system-wide strategic plan in 2020, set a record for philanthropic giving in 2022, and opened several new teaching and research facilities designed to advance WSU's land-grant mission of serving the public good.

Prior to his appointment at WSU, President Schulz served as the 13th president of Kansas State University. He has had an extensive career as a faculty member and administrator at several public research universities including serving as Vice President for Research and Economic Development, Dean of the Bagley College of Engineering, and Director for the Dave Swalm School of Chemical Engineering at Mississippi State University. He was also a faculty member and held various leadership positions at Michigan Technological University and the University of North Dakota.

President Schulz has been honored for his leadership and service throughout his career in academia. He was inducted into the Virginia Tech Academy of Engineering Excellence in 2019 and is a Fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science (AAAS) and the American Society for Engineering Education (ASEE).

As an administrator, President Schulz has proven to be a passionate supporter of intercollegiate athletics. He currently sits on the Pac-12 Board of Directors, is a member of the Executive Committee, and is the Pac-12 representative for the College Football Playoff Board of Managers. He previously served as chair of the NCAA Board of Governors, the association's governing body and highest-ranking committee.

President Schulz received his B.S. in Chemical Engineering (1986) and his Ph.D. in Chemical Engineering (1991) from Virginia Tech.

He is married to Dr. Noel Nunnally Schulz. They have two sons, Tim and Andrew.

ELIZABETH S.
CHILTON*CHANCELLOR, WSU PULLMAN

Dr. Elizabeth Chilton was named provost and executive vice president in May of 2020 and began serving at WSU in July. In January 2022, she was named Chancellor for the WSU Pullman flagship campus.

A first-generation college student, Chilton earned her PhD at the University of Massachusetts Amherst, after earning her BA at the University at Albany, State University of New York.

From 2017 to 2020 she served as dean of the Harpur College of Arts and Sciences at Binghamton University, one of the largest universities in the SUNY system. Prior to her tenure at Binghamton, Chilton spent nearly 16 years as a professor and leader at the University of Massachusetts. She served as a professor, anthropology department chair and associate vice chancellor for research and engagement, among other roles. She worked toward making the institutions she's served more accessible, diverse, and inclusive.

After earning her PhD, Chilton got her start in academia at Harvard University, where she was an tenure track assistant professor and served as the Associate Curator for the Archeology of Northeastern North America at the institution's Peabody Museum.

In addition to her administrative roles, Chilton is a respected author, teacher, and scholar of New England archeology and Native American studies.

Chilton serves as president of the Archaeology Division of the American Anthropological Association, and has served as a faculty fellow for the Higher Education Leadership Programs for Women, or HERS, which aims to create and sustain a diverse network of bold women leaders. She's been involved in more than a dozen conferences since 1999, serving as an organizer as well as a moderator and panelist, and is the author of dozens of peer-reviewed book chapters and journal articles.

Washington State Director of Athletics Patrick Chun is entering his sixth year at WSU. Chun is the school's 14th Director of Athletics and the first Asian-American athletics director to lead a Power Five school. In 2019, Chun was named Under Armor Athletic Director of the Year, the first WSU Athletics leader to receive that honor.

Since arriving in Pullman, Chun has overseen an incredible transformation of Cougar Athletics, both on and off the fields and courts of competition, including record-setting student-athlete academic achievements, unprecedented fundraising totals, transformative facility projects, and innovative student-welfare programming.

Under his leadership, ten Cougar programs have made NCAA Tournament appearances and the Cougars have won six Pac-12 Conference Championships. Among these achievements are program-best performances in multiple sports including:

- The 2023 Women's Basketball team winning the first Pac-12 Conference Championship for any women's program in WSU history, while also making its third-straight appearance in the NCAA Tournament. Head Coach Kamie Ethridge was selected as the National Coach of the Year by The Athletic.
- Cougar Football beginning its 2023 season having played in seven-consecutive bowl games, the longest streak in WSU history and the second longest active streak in the Pac-12 Conference.
- Women's Soccer reaching the College Cup in 2019 for the first time.
- Women's Volleyball earning seven-straight NCAA appearances from 2016 through 2022.
- Men's Basketball's earning its second-straight National Invitation Tournament (NIT) in 2023, marking the first time in over a decade that the program made back-to-back postseason appearances.

In the classroom, the academic performance of WSU student-athletes continues to set records:

- In the last six years, 51 WSU student-athletes have earned All-American honors, 181 WSU student-athletes have earned All-Conference honors, 953 student-athletes have received Academic All-Conference honors and eight student-athletes were named Academic All-Americans.
- In the Spring semester of 2023, WSU Student-Athletes averaged a program-record 3.26 cumulative grade point average (GPA) and two-thirds of WSU student-athletes earned over a 3.00 GPA.
- In the most recent Graduation Success Rate (GSR) data, WSU recorded a program-best score of 91%.
- In the most recent Academic Progress Rate (APR) scores, WSU had six programs post a perfect single-year APR score.

During his time in Pullman, Chun has established himself as a leader both nationally and in the Pac-12 serving on numerous committees, including:

- National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA), President (2023-current)
- Co-Chair Pac-12 ImpACT Leadership Council (2022 – current)
- NCAA Division I Council (2021–current)
- NCAA Strategic Vision and Planning Committee, Chair (2021-current)
- NCAA Division I Transformation Committee (2022)
- NCAA Constitution Committee (2021)
- Co-Founder Asian American & Pacific Islander Athletics Alliance (4AAPI)

Chun has spearheaded several initiatives to improve the student-athlete experience and their welfare, including enhancements to mental health awareness, which resulted in WSU Athletics being awarded the Washington State Psychological Association's Public Citizen Award in 2018. WSU Athletics is also committed to diversity and inclusion efforts, working closely with WSU's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and the Black Student-Athlete Association to increase education and programming. For the 2021-22 academic year, WSU's BSAA was named Organization of the Year at the inaugural Black Student-Athlete Summit Awards ceremony.

Under his leadership, Cougar fundraising has been revitalized, setting all-time highs in annual giving and total donations since his arrival. WSU set a university record in 2022-23 finishing the year with $61.9 million in overall athletic fundraising. WSU Athletics has averaged over $31 million a year in total fundraising during Chun's tenure, which is a large increase from the averaged $11.5 million a year in overall fundraising from 2014-18 prior to his arrival. In 2023, the WSU Board of Regents approved construction on the $27 million Taylor Sports Complex (Indoor Practice Field) and the $10 million Champions Center (Student-Athlete Support Center). In March of 2021, WSU secured an $11 million field naming rights agreement with GESA Credit Union through a partnership with Learfield | IMG College, resulting in Gesa Field at Martin Stadium. Prior to the 2019-20 academic year, WSU successfully fundraised for a $10 million renovation of its baseball stadium, the first athletics facility at WSU funded completely by private donations.

Prior to arriving at WSU, Chun spent five-and-a-half years as the Director of Athletics at Florida Atlantic University and the previous fifteen years at his alma mater, Ohio State University, in a multitude of roles from 1997 through 2012, culminating in his role as the Executive Associate Athletics Director.

During his time at Florida Atlantic, Chun guided the Owls to unprecedented successes across academics, athletics, student-athlete development and fundraising. His top priority upon arriving at FAU was strengthening student-athlete academics, and during his tenure, FAU student-athletes posted a combined GPA above 3.0 for the first time in school history. School records were also posted for Graduate Success Rate (GSR) and Academic Progress Rate (APR) in 2016-17.

FAU Athletics rose to some of its greatest heights in competition during Chun's tenure, winning multiple championships, both individual and team, and numerous national and conference awards. Chun's focus on the complete student-athlete was highlighted by the 2016 National Association of Academic Advisors (NAA) Model Practices Award, awarded to FAU for displaying best practices in their programming for student-athletes. In December 2015, the university announced the largest single gift in its history, $16 million from the Schmidt Family Foundation.

During his fifteen years at Ohio State, Chun provided leadership and oversight for all facets of the external relations division from 2009-12. In the four years of overseeing the external relations division, Chun oversaw record fundraising years of $42 million in 2012, $41 million in 2011, and $39 million in 2010. Chun also was a lead member of the athletics department senior team that negotiated the then-largest multimedia rights deal in intercollegiate athletics history: a 10-year, $128 million partnership with IMG College in 2009. Chun also served as the daily administrative liaison with the football program.

A native of Strongsville, Ohio, Chun earned a Bachelor's Degree from Ohio State University and a Master's degree from Duquesne University. He and his wife, Natalie, also an OSU alumna, have three daughters (Vanna, Kennedy and Gretta) who enjoy their dog (Little Brother).

IKE
DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Ike Ukaegbu is in his second year as WSU's Deputy Director of Athletics after being named to the position in June of 2022.

Ukaegbu leads the group of sport administrators charged with providing day-to-day oversight of WSU's varsity sports. The group develops consistent policies/procedures and each sport administrator oversees all aspects of their respective program(s), including public relations, personnel, budgeting, capital projects, fundraising, student-athlete welfare and overall program evaluation.

Ukaegbu serves as sport administrator for three of WSU's 17 sports – football, men's basketball and women's tennis. Within his football duties, he oversees postseason bowl selection/planning and nonconference scheduling.

In addition to his senior leadership and sport oversight responsibilities, Ukaegbu supervises several department units, including strength and conditioning, athletic medicine, equipment operations, nutrition and WSU Athletics' Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI) efforts.

Ukaegbu arrived in Pullman having spent the previous seven years as the Senior Associate Athletics Director for Compliance at Texas Christian University (TCU). While there, he oversaw all areas of TCU's comprehensive athletics compliance operations for the department's 22 sport programs, was the Sport Administrator for the Men's Basketball, Swimming & Diving and Rifle programs, and was also a member of the Athletic Director's Executive Team. Ukaegbu will serve as the sport administrator of football and men's basketball.

Throughout the 2020-21 academic year, Ukaegbu was one of 20 individuals who participated in the yearlong NCAA Pathway Program, which prepares senior-level athletic administrators to attain positions as directors of athletics or conference commissioners.

Ukaegbu completed the third cohort of the TCU Master Leaders Program and also served as a member of the department of athletics Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI) Council. As part of his DEI Council responsibilities, he represented the athletics department in the university's search for a Chief Inclusion Officer. In August 2020, he was selected as the TCU Chancellor's Staff Award recipient, which recognizes a university staff member noted for exemplary service and above and beyond contributions to the welfare of the campus community. Ukaegbu, in collaboration with other athletics department staff members and campus partners, spearheaded the launch of TCU's Name, Image & Likeness program, "Scaled to Succeed."

Prior to TCU, Ukaegbu served one year as an Associate Athletics Director for compliance at Virginia Commonwealth University. At VCU, he oversaw all areas of compliance for the department's 17 sport programs, was a member of the senior administrative team, and also served as the sport administrator/supervisor for women's soccer.

Ukaegbu spent two years as the Director of Athletic Compliance at Boise State University, while also serving in the compliance offices at Cal State Fullerton (2010-11), American University (2008-10) and Florida Atlantic (2007-08).

Throughout his career, Ukaegbu has served on numerous institutional, conference and national committees and organizations including the NCAA Eligibility Center Division I External Advisory Group, the National Association for Athletics Compliance (NAAC) Thought Leaders Group, and the National Association for Athletics Compliance (NAAC) Convention Committee, in which he chaired the Networking Subcommittee. He also represented the NCAA Division I membership on the NCAA Eligibility Center Vice President Search Committee in the Fall of 2016.

Ukaegbu earned a B.A. in Political Science with a Minor in Pre-Law from the University of Arizona in 2007 and a Master's of Science in Sports Administration from St. Thomas University (Miami, Fla.) in 2008. He and his wife, Katie, have three children, Devin, Rosie and Spencer.

ANNE
MCCOY
DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
SENIOR WOMAN ADMINISTRATOR

Veteran intercollegiate athletics administrator Anne McCoy has served Washington State University since 2001 and was promoted from associate director to senior associate director of athletics in 2004. Her appointment to senior woman administrator came in the summer of 2007 and in 2013 she was named deputy director of athletics.

In her current capacity she is charged with supervising all aspects of WSU's day-to-day operations along with several areas within the department. She also serves as the sport supervisor for women's basketball, volleyball, soccer and rowing.

McCoy currently serves as the liaison to the Pac-12 Men's and Women's Swimming and Diving Coaches. She has completed positions on several other conference committees, including Vice President of the Executive Committee, Pac-12 Women's Basketball Tournament and Nominating Committees, and the Diversity Leadership Initiative. She is the past chair of the NCAA Women's Rowing Committee and is a past vice president of the Pac-10 Conference.

A Wisconsin native, McCoy earned a bachelor's degree in sports management in 1989 from the University of Massachusetts. While an undergraduate, she worked for the Pittsburgh Penguins professional hockey organization, expanding the club's season ticket base. McCoy also served an internship as the assistant athletic business manager at the University of Connecticut, and was instrumental in designing and implementing a comprehensive computerized budget-tracking system.

McCoy served in several capacities at the University of Maine from 1989-1995, lastly as associate director of athletics and senior woman administrator. At Maine, she supervised men's basketball, men's and women's soccer, men's and women's swimming and softball in addition to the athletic business office, ticket office, retail store and cheerleading staff and operations. She took a similar administrative position at Saint Louis University from 1995-96.

In 1996, McCoy joined the staff at Portland State University as associate director of athletics and senior woman administrator, and was promoted to senior associate director of athletics in 1998. At PSU, she managed all internal staff and the daily operations of the department, representing the director of athletics as needed. McCoy also supervised men's and women's golf, cross country/track and field, and women's volleyball, soccer, tennis and softball.

McCoy and her husband Brian have two children, daughter Taylor, a former swimming student-athlete at Washington State, and son Jake.

NANCY
FACULTY ATHLETICS REPRESENTATIVE

Dr. Nancy Swanger begins her sixth year as WSU's Faculty Athletics Representative to the Pac-12 Conference. Dr. Swanger is the Associate Dean and Director of the School of Hospitality Business Management in the Carson College of Business at Washington State University, starting back in 2000.

In addition to her administrative duties, she teaches various courses in the curriculum—professional development, cost controls, and special topics focusing on current trends or industry issues. Dr. Swanger has more than 40 years of restaurant experience as a co-worker, manager, district manager, and owner. She and her husband, Larry, owned and operated up to eight Subway restaurants from 1988-2017, and they own two independent concepts in Moscow, Idaho—Gambino's and the Varsity Diner.

Her research interests lie in the areas of quick-serve restaurant operations, food safety/sanitation, and hospitality curriculum. Prior to coming to WSU, Nancy taught at the University of Idaho and Lewis-Clark State College.

Nancy and her husband Larry have four children.

WASHINGTON STATE SPORTS NETWORK from LEARFIELD

Cougar football games are broadcast live on the radio throughout the Pacific Northwest via the Washington State Sports Network from Learfield. The 20-station football network reaches from Alaska to British Columbia to Oregon and across the state of Washington and can be heard worldwide via the internet on the Varsity Network App and Sirius XM Satellite radio. Cougar football broadcasts begin two hours before kickoff, carry through the game and conclude with post-game coach and player interviews and the Coug Talk call-in show.

The Washington State Sports Network also features radio coverage of WSU men's basketball, baseball, women's basketball and women's volleyball, and the Cougar Coaches Show in the fall, winter and spring seasons.

Learfield manages corporate marketing opportunities and on-site promotions at WSU football and basketball games as well as oversees sales for all signage at Gesa Field, Friel Court at Beasley Coliseum and all Cougar competition sites.

COUGAR FOOTBALL BROADCAST TEAM

MATT CHAZANOW

Matt Chazanow begins his ninth season as the Cougars play-by-play announcer. Chazanow calls the action for Cougar football, men's basketball and baseball broadcasts.

Chazanow has extensive experience in broadcasting at the highest level of collegiate football, including calling national play-by-play broadcasts for ACC football. He also has called postseason national men's basketball for the SEC, Big East and AAC tournaments along with SEC and ACC postseason baseball. Chazanow also has worked with Westwood One national radio and Pac-12 Network television.

ALEX BRINK

Alex Brink begins his sixth year as an analyst on the Cougar football broadcasts. As a student-athlete for WSU, Brink was a three-time All-Pac-10 quarterback from 2004-07, setting school records for career touchdowns and passing yards. He is also the only starting quarterback in school history to lead the Cougars to three Apple Cup victories. The Eugene, Ore. native was also a three-time All-Academic honoree and a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete during his senior year. Brink was selected in the seventh round of the 2008 NFL Draft by the Houston Texans, where he played two seasons before spending six seasons in the Canadian Football League.

Brink is co-founder of EForce Sports, a performance training, skill development and fitness company in Portland and has served as a quarterback coach at the Elite11 Quarterback Competition. He has previously been part of the IMG Cougar Roadshow pregame broadcast and was a contributor on NBCSports Northwest as well as ESPN 1080 and Rip City Radio in Portland.

JESSAMYN MCINTYRE

Jessamyn McIntyre returns for her 12th season as a sideline reporter for Cougar football. McIntyre was an executive producer for Q13 FOX in Seattle and previously worked as an executive producer for 710 ESPN Seattle (2009-20) and for ESPN Radio in Bristol, Conn. (2005-09). Additionally, she hosted the Seattle Seahawks postgame show on Northwest Cable News and served on the board of directors for the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society.
